

Wide and immediate family history diagram

The diagram shows those family members who would fall into the wider family history outside the thick black line and parents and siblings inside the thick black line.

Both family history of permanent childhood hearing loss (PCHI) are recorded as a risk factor on the national IT system.