Guidance on Scoring

The fund is open to all organisations providing services for male victims of domestic and/or sexual violence.

The Home Office welcomes joint bids from organisations who wish to work together in order to achieve a greater impact.

To be eligible to apply, your organisation must have a successful track record of:

- Providing specific, direct services for male victims of sexual and/ or domestic violence.
- Engage in both preventative work and support work.

If the service works with female victims you should demonstrate that you:

- Have a proven track record in working with male victims and offering tailored support for male victims of domestic and/or sexual abuse.
- The fund must be used for a specific, direct service of domestic and/or sexual abuse.

The service must be proven to be sustainable

Guidance for completing the form

All sections of the application form must be completed. The word limit is specified on the application form next to each question (where a word limit is relevant).

Funds must be used to support the aim:

- ❖ To provide support to male victims of domestic and/or sexual violence and
- ❖ To raise awareness of domestic and /or sexual violence against men to encourage male victims to be heard and recognised.

The fund must be used for specific, direct services for male victims of sexual and/ or domestic violence.

To help us assess your background in this field, please answer the following questions.

- ❖ What services do you currently offer?
- ❖ How do these specifically cater for male victims?
- ❖ How do you ensure this is a direct service which reaches male victims?

- ❖ Please include any evidence (in any form) you have of these services being effective and engaging male victims to access help and support.

If the service works with female victims, the service must have a proven track record in working with male victims and offering tailored support for male victims of domestic and/or sexual abuse.

To help us assess your background in this field, please answer the following questions.

- ❖ Please tell us what services are offered specifically for men and how this service is tailored specifically for the needs of male victims.
- ❖ What proportion of your work is targeted at male victims?
- ❖ How do you ensure the service offered to men is an effective service which caters for the needs of male victims?
- ❖ Does your organisation do any preventative work specifically aimed at male victims? Please evidence this with detail of the work, when it was commissioned/ undertaken and the impact it has had on the service provided to male victims accessing your service.

The service must have a proven successful track record in dealing with male victims of sexual and/or domestic violence.

To help us assess your background in this field, please answer the following questions.

- ❖ Can you demonstrate a proven track record in dealing with male victims of domestic and or sexual abuse?
- ❖ Please ensure you fully evidence a proven track record in working with male victims. This can include past reports on provision of services, awards of commendation, recommendations and appraisals by other organisations etc.

Please note this is not an exhaustive list.

The service should engage in both preventative work and support work.

To help us assess your background in this field, please answer the following questions.

- ❖ What preventative work do you do?
- ❖ How do you engage in preventative work?

- ❖ Does your organisation engage with any other agency or organisation to achieve a greater impact when working on preventative work? Is this sustainable preventative work?
- ❖ Please indicate what support work is delivered alongside the preventative work.

The service must be proven to be sustainable.

To help us assess your background in this field, please answer the following questions.

- ❖ Please provide us with any evidence which demonstrates the sustainability of your service.
- ❖ Please provide us with a brief history of your service and how this has been sustainable.
- ❖ Please provide us with details of your last organisation review and financial accounts records.
- ❖ Please explain how you have ensured that your organisation is sustainable and how you look to ensure future sustainability.

What can the money be spent on?

The money can be spent in a manner that is most appropriate for your work, as long as it is directly relevant to the eligibility criteria and adheres to the terms and conditions of the grant agreement.

What the money cannot be spent on?

The money cannot be spent on:

- Activities promoting a religious faith or belief; acquisition of religious objects; the cost of supporting religious personnel
