

TACT 2: Notice of Detention (INTERIM 2011)

(Schedule 7 to the Terrorism Act 2000)

Detention

To.....

You have been detained under paragraph 6 of Schedule 7 to the Terrorism Act 2000, so that an Examining Officer may exercise his power under paragraph 2 of that Schedule to determine whether you appear to be a person who is or has been concerned in the commission, preparation or instigation of acts of terrorism.

At this stage you are not under caution or arrest, however should the circumstances change you will be notified.

Your duties

Whilst being questioned you must:

- (a) Give the examining officer all the information in your possession which the officer requests;
- (b) Give the examining officer if he so requests, a valid passport or another document with a photograph which establishes your identity;
- (c) Declare whether you have with you any documents of a kind specified by the examining officer and, if he so requests, give them to him.
- (d) Give the examining officer on request any document which you have with you and which is of a kind specified by the officer.

You may be asked, or have been asked to complete and hand to the officer an arrival or embarkation card. If so, you have a duty to comply with that request. If you deliberately fail to comply with any of these duties, you could be prosecuted under paragraph 18(1) of Schedule 7 to the Terrorism Act 2000.

Do you want someone informed?

You may, if you wish, at public expense, have a friend, a relative or a person who is known to you, or is likely to take an interest in your welfare, informed that you are being detained here. NB. Under paragraph 8 of Schedule 8 to the Terrorism Act 2000, or paragraph 16 of Schedule 8 in Scotland, an officer of at least the rank of Superintendent may delay this right.

Do you want to contact a solicitor?

You may consult either in person, in writing or on the telephone, privately with a solicitor. If you do not wish to do so now, you may do so later and at any time while you are detained. NB. Under paragraph 8 of Schedule 8 to the Terrorism Act 2000, or paragraph 16 of Schedule 8 in Scotland, an officer of at least the rank of Superintendent may delay this right.

If you do not have details of a solicitor details of an independent solicitor can be supplied to you. Consultation with a solicitor may be at Public Expense, your entitlement to which will be assessed by the solicitor you contact.
