Please pass this email to Sir Scott Baker

Dear Scott,

I should have responded much sooner to your invitation to the Law Commission to contribute to your Extradition review, if only to say that the settled practice of the Commission is not to contribute or respond to reviews or consultation processes being undertaken by others. I am sorry.

I might add that I rather doubt whether in any event we would have much relevant in-house expertise.

As ever,

James Munby
Chairman of the Law Commission
