- a) a resolution has been passed unanimously by all of the Members of the Recognition Panel, who shall determine the matter at a meeting duly convened for that purpose; and
- b) the requirements of Article 9.2 are met.

9.2. Before any proposal to add to, vary or omit (in whole or in part) a provision of this Charter ("proposed change") can take effect:

- a) the leaders of the three main political parties in the House of Commons (being the parties with the first, second and third greatest numbers of Members of Parliament at the relevant time) must each confirm in writing to the Chair of the Board that he agrees to the proposed change; and
- b) a draft of the proposed change must have been laid before Parliament, and approved by a resolution of each House. For this purpose "approved" means that at least two-thirds of the members of the House in question who vote on the motion do so in support of it.

9.3. The provisions of Article 9.2 do not apply to a proposed change to the Charter that is required merely to correct a clerical or typographical error.

9.4. Provided the terms of Article 9.2 have been met, any such addition, variation or omission shall, when approved by Us, Our Heirs or Successors in Council, become effective so that this Charter shall thenceforth continue and operate as though it had been originally granted and made accordingly.

10. DISSOLUTION

10.1. Subject to Article 10.2, the Recognition Panel may, if it appears necessary to the Board (acting unanimously) to do so:

- b) wind up or otherwise deal with the affairs of the Recognition Panel in such manner as they consider fit, provided that all remaining funds (which remain once the debts of the Recognition Panel have been paid in full) together with the proceeds from the sale of any assets belonging to the Recognition Panel shall be paid to the Consolidated Fund.

10.2. The Recognition Panel shall not determine to surrender this Charter unless:

- a) the leaders of the three main political parties in the House of Commons (being the parties with the first, second and third greatest numbers of Members of Parliament at the relevant time) has each confirmed in writing to the Chair of the Board that he agrees to the proposed surrender and dissolution; and
- b) information about the proposed surrender has been presented to Parliament, and the proposed dissolution has been approved by a resolution of each House. For this purpose "approved" means that at least two-thirds of the members of the House in question who vote on the motion do so in support of it.

10.3. This Article is subject to any applicable statutory provisions or other legal requirement.

11. MONEY

11.1. The Exchequer shall grant to the Recognition Panel such sums of money as are sufficient to enable the Board to commence its operations and thereafter fulfil its Purpose for the first three years after the date upon which this Charter becomes effective. The grant of such monies shall be on such terms as Managing Public Money requires.

- 11.2. The Board shall prepare annual budgets for each financial year, and in doing so shall have regard to the need to ensure it achieves value for money. For the first three years after the date upon which this Charter becomes effective, the Board shall provide the Secretary of State for Culture, Media and Sport, upon request, with such budgets, once prepared, and with such other information as she requires, in order to estimate the on-going costs of the Recognition Panel from time to time.
- 11.3. The Board shall prepare, consult publicly upon, and publish a scheme for charging fees to Regulators in relation to the functions of recognition and review, to come into force from the third anniversary of the date upon which this Charter becomes effective. Any fee charged shall comply with Article 11.4. The aim of the scheme shall be for the Recognition Panel to recover its costs in determining applications for recognition and for conducting cyclical reviews, as appropriate.
- 11.4. The Board may determine to set different fees for different circumstances. A fee may not exceed the following amounts:
- a) in the case of a fee relating to an application for recognition £x;
 - b) in the case of a fee relating to a cyclical review £y; and
 - c) in each case the amount specified shall be revised according to the indexation formula specified at Article 11.5.
- 11.5. For the purpose of Article 11.4 the indexation formula is: [formula using the Consumer Prices Index]
- 11.6. The Board shall design the scheme so that fees become due and payable irrespective of the success of an application or the outcome of a cyclical review, and for their consequent enforceability as a matter of private contract law.
- 11.7. In the event that the Board considers that its income (from whatever source received) is likely to be insufficient to meet its expenditure, it shall have the right to request further reasonable sums from the Exchequer. In response to such a request, the Exchequer shall grant such sums to the Recognition Panel as it considers necessary to ensure that the Purpose of the Recognition Panel is not frustrated by a lack of funding.
- 11.8. References to the Exchequer in this Article mean the Exchequer acting through the Secretary of State for Culture, Media and Sport, and with the consent of the Lords Commissioners of Our Treasury.
- 11.9. Each Member shall exercise fiduciary duties in relation to the use and management of all monies received by the Recognition Panel. The Chair shall appoint one Member to take specific responsibility for reporting to the Board on the management of the finances of the Recognition Panel.

12. ACCOUNTS

- 12.2. The Board must prepare a statement of accounts for each financial year, and must send a copy of the statement to the Comptroller and Auditor General as soon as practicable after the end of the financial year.
- 12.3. In accordance with any necessary arrangements made between the Comptroller and Auditor General and the Recognition Panel, with the assistance of the Secretary of State for Culture, Media and Sport if required, the Comptroller and Auditor General will examine, certify and report on the statement each year.
- 12.4. The Recognition Panel shall make arrangements for a copy of the certified statement and the Comptroller and Auditor General's report to be laid before Parliament, receiving such assistance from the Secretary of State for Culture, Media and Sport (with regard to laying) as may be required.
- 12.5. In this Article, and Article 13, "financial year" means:
- a) the period beginning with the date this Charter becomes effective under Article 2 (term of charter) and ending with the following 31 March; and
 - b) each successive period of twelve months ending with 31 March.

13. REPORTS

- 13.1. As soon as practicable after the end of each financial year the Board must prepare and publish a report about the activities of the Recognition Panel during that year. The Board shall make arrangements for the Report to be laid before Parliament, with such assistance from the Secretary of State for Culture, Media and Sport (with regard to laying) as may be required.

14. GENERAL

- 14.1. The Recognition Panel shall have perpetual succession, and shall continue to exist as a legal person, regardless of the changes in its composition which occur when particular individuals cease to be Members and are succeeded by other individuals.
- 14.2. The Recognition Panel shall have a Common Seal. The Recognition Panel may alter its Common Seal or replace it with a new one.
- 14.3. The Recognition Panel shall have the capacity and powers of a natural person, and in particular has the capacity to sue and be sued.

15. LIABILITIES

- 15.1. Each and every Member of the Board and of the Appointments Committee shall be indemnified from the assets of the Recognition Panel against any liability incurred by him by reason of any act or thing done by him in the proper discharge of his responsibilities, office or duty under this Charter.

IN WITNESS whereof.....

SCHEDULE 2

SCHEME OF RECOGNITION

In the exercise of the functions set out in Article 4 of this Charter the following Scheme of Recognition shall apply:

Recognition

1. The Board of the Recognition Panel shall grant recognition to a Regulator if the Board is satisfied that the Regulator meets the recognition criteria.
2. The “recognition criteria” means the requirements set out in Schedule 3 to this Charter.
3. Nothing in the Recognition Criteria shall be interpreted in a manner which interferes with any relevant statutory or regulatory obligation imposed upon a Regulator. A relevant statutory or regulatory obligation is one that:
 - a) relates to the Regulator’s constitution or manner of operation; and
 - b) is contained in an Act of Parliament or an instrument of secondary legislation.
4. The Board of the Recognition Panel, in determining an application by a Regulator for recognition, may but need not, take into account any of recommendations 34 to 47 in the Summary of Recommendations of the Leveson Report. Where the Recognition Panel is satisfied that a Regulator meets the recognition criteria it shall not refuse to grant recognition to that Regulator by reason of a failure to comply with any of recommendations 34 to 47.
5. The Board of the Recognition Panel shall not refuse to grant recognition to a Regulator by reason only of the Regulator making different arrangements for the regulation of different classes of its members, including, but not limited to, differential regulation between those of its members which are regarded as publishing on a national basis and those which are regarded as publishing on a local or regional basis. Provided that in all cases any differential regulation complies with the Recognition Criteria.

Cyclical Reviews

6. The Board of the Recognition Panel must review the recognition of a Regulator as soon as practicable after:
 - a. the end of the period of two years beginning with the day of the recognition,
 - b. the end of the period of three years after that period, and
 - c. the end of each subsequent period of three years.

Exceptional Reviews

7. The Board of the Recognition Panel may review the recognition of a Regulator at any other time if it thinks that:

- a. there are exceptional circumstances that make it necessary so to do, having regard, in particular, to whether there have been systemic breaches of the Standards Code; and
 - b. there is a significant public interest in a review of the Regulator's recognition being undertaken.
8. Where the Board proposes to carry out a review in such exceptional circumstances it must give reasonable notice in writing of its proposal to the Regulator, and must specify its reasons for the proposal.

General

9. The Board of the Recognition Panel must prepare and publish a report of any review it conducts, whether of a cyclical or exceptional nature.

Withdrawal

10. The Board of the Recognition Panel may withdraw recognition from a Regulator at that body's request, or where, following a review, the Board is satisfied that:
 - a. the Regulator is not meeting the recognition criteria; or
 - b. the Board has insufficient information to determine whether or to what extent the Regulator is meeting those criteria.
11. The Board of the Recognition Panel may not withdraw recognition from a Regulator unless the Board has given the Regulator at least three months' notice in writing of its proposal to do so. Any such notice may be cancelled before the expiry of the period of 3 months.

Policies and Guidance

12. The Board of the Recognition Panel shall from time to time publish policies, guidance and information, as it thinks appropriate, about the manner in which it proposes to conduct the Scheme of Recognition, including material relating to:
 - a. the making, processing and administration of applications (including for cyclical reviews);
 - b. the conduct of exceptional reviews; and
 - c. the payment of any relevant fees.

SCHEDULE 3

RECOGNITION CRITERIA

The following requirements are the recognition criteria for the Scheme of Recognition established under Article 4 of, and Schedule 2 to, this Charter:

1. An independent self-regulatory body should be governed by an independent Board. In order to ensure the independence of the body, the Chair and members of the Board must be appointed in a genuinely open, transparent and independent way, without any direction from industry or influence from Government.
2. The Chair of the Board can only be appointed if nominated by an appointment panel. The selection of that panel must itself be conducted in an appropriately independent way and must, itself, be independent of the industry and of Government.
3. The appointment panel:
 - a) should be appointed in an independent, fair and open way;
 - b) should contain a substantial majority of members who are demonstrably independent of the press;
 - c) should include at least one person with a current understanding and experience of the press;
 - d) should include no more than one current editor of a publication that could be a member of the body.
4. The nomination process for the appointment of the Board should also be an independent process, and the composition of the Board should include people with relevant expertise. The requirement for independence means that there should be no serving editors on the Board.
5. The members of the Board should be appointed only following nomination by the same appointment panel that nominates the Chair, together with the Chair (once appointed), and should:
 - a) be nominated by a process which is fair and open;
 - b) comprise a majority of people who are independent of the press;
 - c) include a sufficient number of people with experience of the industry who may include former editors and senior or academic journalists;
 - d) not include any serving editor; and
 - e) not include any serving member of the House of Commons or any member of the Government.
6. Funding for the system should be settled in agreement between the industry and the Board, taking into account the cost of fulfilling the obligations of the regulator and the commercial pressures on the industry. There should be an indicative budget which the Board certifies is adequate for the purpose. Funding settlements should cover a four or five year period and should be negotiated well in advance.

7. The standards code must ultimately be adopted by the Board, and be written by a Code Committee which is comprised of both independent members and serving editors.
8. The code must take into account the importance of freedom of speech, the interests of the public (including but not limited to the public interest in detecting or exposing crime or serious impropriety, protecting public health and safety and preventing the public from being seriously misled), the need for journalists to protect confidential sources of information, and the rights of individuals. Specifically, it must cover standards of:
 - a) conduct, especially in relation to the treatment of other people in the process of obtaining material;
 - b) appropriate respect for privacy where there is no sufficient public interest justification for breach; and
 - c) accuracy, and the need to avoid misrepresentation.
9. The Board should require, of those who subscribe, appropriate internal governance processes, transparency on what governance processes they have in place, and notice of any failures in compliance, together with details of steps taken to deal with failures in compliance.
10. The Board should require all those who subscribe to have an adequate and speedy complaint handling mechanism; it should encourage those who wish to complain to do so through that mechanism and should not receive complaints directly unless or until the internal complaints system has been engaged without the complaint being resolved in an appropriate time.
11. The Board should have the power to hear and decide on complaints about breach of the standards code by those who subscribe. The Board should have the power (but not necessarily the duty) to hear complaints:
 - a) from anyone personally and directly affected by the alleged breach of the standards code, or
 - b) where an alleged breach of the code is significant and there is substantial public interest in the Board giving formal consideration to the complaint, from a representative group affected by the alleged breach, or
 - c) from a third party seeking to ensure accuracy of published information.

In the case of third party complaints the views of the party most closely involved should be taken into account.

12. Decisions on complaints should be the ultimate responsibility of the Board, advised by complaints handling officials to whom appropriate delegations may be made.

13. Serving editors should not be members of any Committee advising the Board on complaints and any such Committee should have a composition broadly reflecting that of the main Board, with a majority of people who are independent of the press.
14. It should continue to be the case that complainants are able to bring complaints free of charge.
15. In relation to complaints, the Board should have the power where appropriate to require remedial action for breach of standards where a negotiated outcome between a complainant and a subscriber has failed. Although remedies are essentially about correcting the record for individuals, the power to require a remedy must apply equally in relation to:
 - a. individual standards breaches; and
 - b. groups of people as defined in criterion 11 where there is no single identifiable individual who has been affected; and
 - c. matters of fact where there is no single identifiable individual who has been affected.
16. In the event of no agreement between a complainant and a subscriber, the power to require the nature, extent and placement of a remedy should lie with the Board.
17. The Board should not have the power to prevent publication of any material, by anyone, at any time although (in its discretion) it should be able to offer a service of advice to editors of subscribing publications relating to code compliance.
18. The Board, being an independent self-regulatory body, should have authority to examine issues on its own initiative and have sufficient powers to carry out investigations both into suspected serious or systemic breaches of the code and failures to comply with directions of the Board. Those who subscribe must be required to cooperate with any such investigation.
19. The Board should have the power to impose appropriate and proportionate sanctions (including but not limited to financial sanctions up to 1% of turnover of the publication concerned with a maximum of £1,000,000) on any subscriber found to be responsible for serious or systemic breaches of the standards code or governance requirements of the body. The sanctions that should be available should include power to require publication of corrections, if the breaches relate to accuracy, or other remedial action if the breaches relate to other provisions of the code.
20. The Board should have both the power and a duty to ensure that all breaches of the standards code that it considers are recorded as such and that proper data is kept that records the extent to which complaints have been made and their outcome; this information should be made available to the public in a way that allows understanding of the compliance record of each title.
21. The Board should publish an Annual Report identifying:

- a) the body's subscribers, identifying any significant changes in subscriber numbers;
 - b) the number of articles in respect of which it has handled substantive complaints and the outcomes reached, both in aggregate for all subscribers and individually in relation to each subscriber;
 - c) a summary of any investigations carried out and the result of them;
 - d) a report on the adequacy and effectiveness of compliance processes and procedures adopted by subscribers; and
 - e) information about the extent to which the arbitration service has been used.
22. The Board should provide an arbitral process in relation to civil legal claims against subscribers, drawing on independent legal experts of high reputation and ability on a cost-only basis to the subscribing member. The process should be fair and quick, inquisitorial and inexpensive for complainants to use (save for a power to make an adverse order for the costs of the arbitrator if proceedings are frivolous or vexatious). The arbitrator must have the power to hold hearings where necessary but, equally, to dispense with them where it is not necessary. The process must have a system to allow frivolous or vexatious claims to be struck out at an early stage.
23. The membership of a regulatory body should be open to all publishers on fair, reasonable and non-discriminatory terms.
