Dear Sirs,

PUBLIC CONSULTATION
DISABILITY LIVING ALLOWANCE REFORM

I am very disabled as a result of having had polio (infantile paralysis) as a child. I have been awarded both care and mobility components of the Disability Living Allowance at the highest levels, indefinitely. I use a wheelchair to 'get around' in and can understand and communicate with people very well indeed.

I can also understand, from reading paragraphs 25, 26 and 27, that I and very many other equally severely disabled people will not be getting any of the Personal Independence Payment.

I am so disappointed that this country has sunk to such depths that any British Government could actually contemplate such a dreadful thing.

Yours faithfully,
