 - (b) promptly inform the Central Authority of the Requesting Party of his answer.
3. The Central Authority of the Requesting Party may make arrangements to ensure, so far as is possible, that a person attending in the territory of the Requesting Party pursuant to this Article shall not be subject to service of process, or be detained or subjected to any restriction of personal liberty, by reason of any acts or convictions in the Requesting Party that preceded his departure from the territory of the Requested Party.

4. Arrangements made under Paragraph 3 of this Article shall cease fifteen days after the Central Authority of the Requesting Party has notified the Central Authority of the Requested Party that the person's presence is no longer required, or when the person, having left the territory of the Requesting Party, voluntarily returns to it. These arrangements may be extended by agreement between the Parties to take account of circumstances beyond the control of the person appearing which do not include the commission of a criminal offence.

ARTICLE 12

Transfer of Persons in Custody

2. Any person who has failed to answer a summons to appear, service of which has been requested, shall not, even if the summons contains a notice of penalty, be subjected to any punishment or measure of restraint, unless subsequently he voluntarily enters the territory of the Requesting Party and is there again duly summoned.

3. The Central Authority of the Requesting Party shall transmit any request for the service of a document requiring the appearance of a person before an authority or court in the Requesting Party within a reasonable time before the scheduled appearance.

4. The Requested Party shall return a proof of service whenever possible in the manner specified in the request.

ARTICLE 16

information justifying such action under the laws of the Requested Party and it is carried out in accordance with the laws of that Party.

2. The Requested Party may refuse a request if it relates to conduct in respect of which powers of search and seizure would not be exercisable in the territory of the Requested Party in similar circumstances.

3. The Central Authority of the Requested Party may require that the Requesting Party agrees to terms and conditions which the Requested Party may deem necessary to protect third party interests in the item to be transferred.

ARTICLE 17

Return of Documents and Articles

The Central Authority of the Requesting Party shall return any documents or articles furnished to it in the execution of a request under this Treaty as soon as is practicable unless the Central Authority of the Requested Party waives the return of the documents or articles.

ARTICLE 18

Assistance in Confiscation Proceedings

1. The Parties shall assist each other in relation to the identification, tracing, restraint, seizure and confiscation of the proceeds and instrumentalities of crime.

- (e) a certified true copy of the restraint or confiscation order and statement of the grounds on the basis of which the order was made, if they are not indicated in the order itself.

3. If the Central Authority of one Party becomes aware that proceeds or instrumentalities of crime are located in the territory of the other Party and may be liable to restraint, seizure or confiscation under the laws of that Party, it may so inform the Central Authority of the other Party. If the Party so notified has jurisdiction, this information may be presented to its authorities for a determination whether any action is appropriate. The said authorities shall issue their decision in accordance with the laws of their country and the Central Authority of that country shall ensure that the other Party is aware of the action taken.

ARTICLE 19

Return of Assets

1. Where an offence has been committed and a conviction has been obtained in the Requesting Party, the assets which have been seized by the Requested Party may be returned to the Requesting Party for the purpose of confiscation, in accordance with the domestic law of the Requested Party.
2. The rights claimed by bona-fide third parties over these assets shall be respected.
3. The return shall occur once a final judgement has been given in the Requesting Party. However the Requested Party may return the assets before the conclusion of criminal proceedings in accordance with its domestic law.

ARTICLE 20

1. When the Requested Party seizes or confiscates assets that constitute public funds, whether or not these have been laundered, and which have been embezzled from the Requesting Party, the Requested Party shall return the seized or confiscated assets, less any costs of realisation, to the Requesting Party.
2. The return shall occur once a final judgement has been given in the Requesting Party. However the Requested Party may return the funds before the conclusion of criminal proceedings in accordance with its domestic law.

CHAPTER II

SHARING OF CONFISCATED ASSETS OR THEIR EQUIVALENT FUNDS

ARTICLE 21

Circumstances in which Assets may be Shared

Where a Party is in possession of confiscated assets, and it appears to that Party ('the Holding Party') that co-operation has been given by the other Party ('the Co-operating Party'), the Holding Party may share those assets with the Co-operating Party.

ARTICLE 22

Requests for Asset Sharing

1. A Co-operating Party may make a request for asset sharing from the Holding Party in accordance with the provisions of this Treaty when its co-operation has led, or is expected to lead, to confiscation. A request for asset sharing shall be made within one year from the date of entry of the final order of confiscation, unless otherwise agreed between the Parties.
2. A request made under paragraph 1 of this Article shall set out the circumstances of the co-operation to which it relates, and shall include sufficient details to enable the Holding Party to identify the case, the assets, and the agency or agencies involved.
3. On receipt of a request for asset sharing made in accordance with the provisions of this Article, the Holding Party shall:
 - (a) consider whether to share assets as set out in Article 21 (Circumstances in which Assets may be Shared) of this Chapter, and
 - (b) inform the Party making the request of the outcome of that consideration.
4. In appropriate cases where there are identifiable victims, consideration of the rights of victims may take precedence over asset sharing between the Parties.

ARTICLE 23

Sharing of Assets

1. Where the Holding Party proposes to share assets with the Co-operating Party, it shall:
 - (a) determine the proportion of the assets to be shared which, in its view, represents the extent of the co-operation afforded by the Co-operating Party; and
 - (b) transfer a sum equivalent to that proportion to the Co-operating Party in accordance with Article 24 (Payment of Shared Assets) of this Chapter.
2. The Parties agree that it may not be appropriate to share where the value of the realised assets or the assistance rendered by the Co-operating Party is de minimis.

ARTICLE 24

Payment of Shared Assets

1. Unless otherwise agreed, any sum transferred pursuant to Article 23(1)(b) (Sharing of Assets) of this Chapter shall be paid:
 - (a) in the currency of the Holding Party, and
 - (b) by means of an electronic transfer of funds or cheque.
2. Payment of any such sum shall be made to such recipient or recipients as the Co-operating Party may from time to time specify by notification for the purposes of this Article.

ARTICLE 25

Imposition of Conditions

Unless otherwise agreed, where the Holding Party transfers any sum pursuant to Article 23(1)(b) (Sharing of Assets) above, it may not impose on the Co-operating Party any conditions as to the use of that sum, and in particular may not require the Co-operating Party to share the sum with any other State, organisation or individual.

CHAPTER III

FINAL PROVISIONS

ARTICLE 26

Data Protection

1. Any Party may refuse to transfer personal data obtained as a result of the execution of a request made under the Treaty where the transfer of such data is prohibited under its domestic law.
2. Personal data transferred from one Party to another as a result of the execution of a request made under the Treaty may be used by the Party to which such data have been transferred, only:
 - (a) for the purpose of criminal proceedings to which the Treaty applies;
 - (b) for other judicial and administrative proceedings directly related to the proceedings mentioned under (a);
 - (c) for preventing an immediate and serious threat to public security.
3. Such data may however be used for any other purpose if prior consent to that effect is given by either the Party from which the data had been transferred, or the data subject.
4. Any Party that transfers personal data obtained as a result of the execution of a request made under the Treaty may require the Party to which the data have been transferred to give information on the use made with such data.

ARTICLE 27

Compatibility with Other Arrangements

Assistance and procedures set forth in this Treaty shall not prevent either of the Parties from granting assistance to the other Party through the provisions of other international agreements to which it may be a party, or through the provisions of its domestic law. The Parties may also provide assistance pursuant to any arrangement, agreement or practice which may be applicable between the law enforcement agencies of the Parties.

ARTICLE 28

Consultation

The Central Authorities of the Parties shall consult, at the request of either, concerning the operation of this Treaty either generally or in relation to a particular case. The Central Authorities may also agree on such practical measures as may be necessary to facilitate the implementation of this Treaty.

ARTICLE 29

Application

1. This Treaty shall apply to offences committed before or after the date on which it enters into force.

2. This Treaty shall apply:

(a) in relation to the United Kingdom, to Great Britain and Northern Ireland; and to any other territory for the international relations of which the United Kingdom is responsible and to which the Treaty shall have been extended by agreement between the Contracting Parties by exchange of notes; and

(b) in relation to Vietnam, to the Socialist Republic of Vietnam.

3. The application of this Treaty to any Territory in respect of which extension has been made in accordance with paragraph 2 of this Article may be terminated by either State giving six months' written notice to the other through the diplomatic channel.

ARTICLE 30

Dispute Settlement

The Parties shall endeavour to settle disputes concerning the interpretation or application of this Treaty by consultation and if necessary via diplomatic channels.

ARTICLE 31

Entry into Force and termination

1. This Treaty shall be subject to ratification and shall enter into force on the date on which the instruments of ratification are exchanged.

2. This Treaty will remain in force for an indefinite period unless terminated by either Party giving written notice of its termination to the other Party through diplomatic channels. Such termination will come into effect six months after the date of receipt of the notice.

3. In case of the termination of this Treaty, it shall continue to apply in relation to requests exchanged prior to the termination coming into force.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, the undersigned, being duly authorised by their respective Governments, have signed this Treaty.
