Customs and Excise Amendment Agreement 2007	4
Keeling Schedule containing the consolidated text of the Customs and Excise Agreement 1979	7

This Command Paper informs Parliament of the conclusion of an agreement between the United Kingdom Government and the Government of the Isle of Man which amends the Customs and Excise Agreement 1979.

Background

The 1979 Agreement transferred responsibility for the operation of the customs service on the Isle of Man from the Commissioners of Customs and Excise to the Treasurer of the Isle of Man. The Agreement was amended in 1994 and has been the subject of further negotiations between the two jurisdictions more recently to update its provisions and to take account of modernised and simplified arrangements for the sharing of common duties between the two jurisdictions. The Customs and Excise (Amendment) Agreement 2007, set out in Part 1 of this Paper, is the result. Part 2 contains a Keeling Schedule showing the present text of the Customs and Excise Agreement 1979 as amended in 1994 and 2007. The 2007 changes are discussed below.

Changes to the 1979 Agreement

Paragraph 2 glosses references in the original 1979 Agreement to the Commissioners of Customs and Excise in consequence of the enactment of the Commissioners for Revenue and Customs Act 2005 (an Act of Parliament). In so far as necessary to give continuing effect to the Agreement references to the Commissioners of Customs and Excise are now to be read as references to the Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs.

Paragraph 3 renders the reference to the Controller and Auditor-General, in paragraph 5 of the 1979 Agreement, gender-neutral.

Paragraph 4 replaces the reference to provisions of the 6th Council EC VAT Directive, which has been repealed, with a reference to its successor Council VAT Directive 2006/112/EC. The opportunity is also being taken to restructure the text, in order to make it easier to comprehend. This is being done by splitting the provisions on supplementary rebates on hydrocarbon oil duty and the duty on beer into a separate sub-paragraph (2). Paragraphs 5 and 6 make amendments which are consequential on the restructuring effected by Paragraph 4.

Paragraph 7 revokes paragraph 10 of the 1979 Agreement, which concerned the provision of an inspection service by the United Kingdom Government and is now spent.

Paragraph 8 amends paragraph 14 of the 1979 Agreement to acknowledge that the arrangements referred to in it are no longer merely transitional, and that VAT registered traders may transfer either to or from the Isle of Man.

Paragraph 9 makes amendments to paragraph 19 of the 1979 Agreement which are consequential on the removal of paragraph 10 of the 1979 Agreement. It also makes a drafting correction.

Paragraph 10 amends paragraph 21 of the 1979 Agreement to remove spent material, following agreement on modernised arrangements for the sharing of common duties between the UK and the Isle of Man.

Paragraph 11 amends paragraph 22 of the 1979 Agreement, extending the period of notice to be given by either Government of its intention to terminate the Agreement, from 6 months to 2 years.

Paragraph 12 amends paragraph 23 of the 1979 Agreement. It substitutes a new definition of “the Commissioners”, reflecting the enactment of the Commissioners for Revenue and Customs Act 2005, and makes an amendment to the definition of “equal duties” which is consequent upon the restructuring of paragraph 6 of the 1979 Agreement.

AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENTS OF THE UNITED KINGDOM AND THE ISLE OF MAN FURTHER AMENDING THE AGREEMENT BETWEEN THOSE GOVERNMENTS ON CUSTOMS AND EXCISE AND ASSOCIATED MATTERS DATED 15TH OCTOBER 1979
