To: Pubs Consultation Responses;

Since becoming a tenant with Enterprise Inns in August 2011, we have been jointly involved with themselves in a major refurbishment of the

We have found the staff and management from the ordering department, deliveries, customer services and regional management to be of a high standard.

The reassuring factor is the our regional manager has always replied promptly by email or telephone if a problem has arisen.

As a family we have every confidence in the company and their support.

Regards
