

Dear Sir/Madam,

7 June 2013

I feel compelled to write to you to express my concerns about the possibility of having legislation that governs the relationship between myself and my pub company, that could ultimately damage my business.

I have recently taken over in the pub trade and without the option of becoming a tenant, with the support that comes with that to assist me in developing my business I wouldn't have been able to take on a pub.

I don't understand why legislation is necessary as I have a good working relationship with Admiral and am worried that extra red tape will result in a reduction in the support they provide to me and increase costs. I am not unhappy with the current situation and see no reason for change. Ultimately this review seems to me a waste of time and taxpayers money. The Government already taxes my business enough!

Yours sincerely