I have been a lessee with Enterprise inns for more than ten years and have had various leased and tenanted pubs with them , I currently have ' pubs and I am looking for another one in my area .

Although not a perfect model I have enjoyed a comfortable income from my Enterprise sites.

Over the last three years trading has been difficult but working closely with the company have been able to maintain the sites with financial help and advice. I had one site put on a business recovery plan which included months of reduced priced beer and a rent reduction , this intern stabilised my business . I have since had a permanent reduction in rent and been allowed to free up some of my tied products the site is back on track . I have entered my sites with minimal ingoing's, and enjoyed a good working partnership with the company and would be keen on other opportunities the company may offer in the future.

Yours Sincerely
