To Whom It May Concern.

I am writing to you as I am concerned over the threat of the new laws for myself and my pub Company, and would like you to hear from a happy Pub tenant. I have taken over the running of in partnership with Admiral Taverns.

Since taking on the Pub I have a good relationship with Admiral Taverns and my BDM,

They have been very supportive of me and my business and without them I would not have been able to have taken on the Pub.

have been in the Pub trade all their lives. and having the opportunity to take on the Pub meant a lot as I was at the time and unable to find work. It provides livelihood and the introduction of unnecessary red tape would threaten this.

People do not usually write in when they are happy with something, but I think it is important that you hear from as many happy tenants within the trade. In my experience it should be the tenants choice and not a legalisation made. This review seems a waste of six pays money.

yours Sincerely
