

Army Basing Programme

Salisbury Plain Training Area - Consulting for a Masterplan

Public Consultation

Notice of Public Exhibitions 19th February to 1st April 2014

The MOD is consulting with people living and working around Salisbury Plain on its plans to accommodate troops returning from Germany.

As part of the Army Basing Programme, army units are being relocated to the Salisbury Plain Training Area. The Ministry of Defence (MOD) is preparing a masterplan to inform the planning for these moves. The MOD has been working closely with Wiltshire Council since mid 2012 on preparing and planning for these moves.

The MOD invite your views on the initial proposals which set out potential changes across the area between Larkhill, Bulford, Tidworth and Ludgershall. Other MOD sites in Wiltshire will see less significant changes. The pattern of army training may also alter within the Salisbury Plain Training Area, although the level of activity is not expected to exceed recent levels.

More information can be obtained from www.gov.uk/government/consultations/salisbury-plain-training-area-master-plan-army-basing-programme.

Information is also provided by Wiltshire Council www.wiltshire.gov.uk/communityandliving/militarycivilianintegrationpartnership.

Public Exhibitions are being held between 19th February and 1st April (staffed on dates shown) at:

Tidworth Public Library

25th February and 19th March

Amesbury Public Library

24th February and 18th March

Salisbury Public Library

25th February and 18th March

Durrington Public Library

24th February and 19th March

The exhibitions will be available for viewing during normal Library hours.

© Crown copyright 2014

Ministry of Defence

Defence
Infrastructure
Organisation