

Ministry of Defence Police & Guarding Agency Information Charter

We need to handle personal information about you, members of the Defence Community (serving members of the Armed Forces, veterans, current and past civil servants, Defence Contractors, visitors to MOD Establishments and potential recruits) and your families, so that we can provide services for you and administer the Department efficiently. Police Officers use information to combat the crime and security risks faced by the Ministry of Defence, the Armed Forces, and the wider Defence Community. This Charter lays out how we look after that information.

When we ask you for personal information, we undertake:

- to make sure you know why we need it;
- to only ask for what we need, and not to collect too much or irrelevant information;
- to protect it and make sure nobody has access to it who shouldn't;
- to make sure our staff who handle personal data are appropriately trained;
- to let you know if we share it with other organisations to give you better services - and if you can say no;
- to make sure we don't keep it longer than necessary; and
- not to make your personal information available for commercial use without your permission.

In return, we ask you to:

- give us accurate information; and
- tell us as soon as possible if there are any changes, such as a new address.

This helps us to keep your information reliable and up to date.

You can get more details on:

- how to find out what information we hold about you and how to ask us to correct any mistakes;
- agreements we have with other organisations for sharing information;
- circumstances where we can keep and/or pass on your personal information without telling you, (for example, to prevent and detect crime, to prosecute or apprehend offenders, to maintain National Security and Public Safety, or to produce anonymised statistics)
- our instructions to staff on how to collect, use and delete your personal information;
- how we check the information we hold is accurate and up to date; and
- how to make a complaint.
