M5 Responsibilities of competent authorities

In England there are two competent authority roles – the “appropriate authority” role undertaken by the Secretary of State and the “Agency” role undertaken by the Environment Agency.

The “appropriate authority” has general responsibility for ensuring the Directive is given effect. That authority also has specific responsibilities for ensuring that appropriate economic analysis is carried out, approving proposals for environmental objectives and programmes of measures, and approving the draft River Basin Management Plans. The appropriate authority may also give guidance or directions to the “Agency”, and any other public body, on the practical implementation of the Directive. The appropriate authority for a river basin district also has the duty to ensure that the requirements of the Directive are given effect in relation to that district as a whole.

The “Agency” is responsible for carrying out the analysis required for characterisation, monitoring, identifying waters used for the abstraction of drinking water, and establishing a register of those waters and other protected areas. It has to prepare proposals for environmental objectives and programmes of measures for each river basin district, and prepare draft River Basin Management Plans. The Agency must also ensure public participation in preparation of the river basin management plan and make certain information required under the Water Framework Directive accessible to the public.

The competent authorities for North West river basin district are the Secretary of State and the Environment Agency. The Secretary of State has the “appropriate authority” responsibilities and the Environment Agency has the “Agency” responsibilities.

M6 Membership

Not applicable.

(The Water Framework Directive requires us to record if a competent authority acts as a coordinating body for other competent authorities and, if so, what is the membership of that group).

M7 Contact points and procedures

The initial point of contact is the North West river basin district Programme Manager who will co-ordinate a response to queries:
