

Dear Sir,

I have been a tenant of Admiral Taverna in various pubs over the last years.

I feel as though I should write to you, as I am concerned that you are considering further regulation of the pub industry.

In my opinion my relationship with Admiral Taverna is excellent; and the business advice, training and support by my BDM has been great.

I am fearful that should further regulation be imposed on the pub co's that this will change a mutually beneficial relationship.

The current system of PIRRS + PICAS seems to be working well, and any disputes that I may have had, have always been dealt with in an appropriately fair and business like way.

What frustrates me the most is that I as a tenant, and being lumped together with all the negative publicity, where as in fact, I am a happy tenant, who enjoys a happy relationship with Admirals, and pay a fair rent.

Yours Sincerely.
