Government Consultation Pub Companies and Tenants April 2013

Having many years had Punch leases I have found them to be very easy to deal with. The support given has generally been as much or as little as needed. When investing in my pubs they have listened to my input. Since they brought in the print and design team it has helped to promote and market the pubs far more cheaply than we could source ourselves. Also giving us a better choice on products, Real Ales etc. I believe as a company if you are honest and up front with Punch they will endeavour to do the same. If you fell on hard times they have been ready to listen and support and the BRM we have been fortunate to deal with certainly seems committed to helping me secure a future for the leases I have with punch.

Kind Regards
