
From: [redacted]@com]
Sent: 11 May 2013 08:17
To: Pubs Consultation Responses
Subject: - Punch Taverns

Dear Sir,

My name is [redacted] I am an ex- licensee and used to have a pub, my pub was originally with [redacted] but was took over by Punch Taverns in their bid to become the biggest pub company in the UK, under the realms of [redacted] Giles Thorley.

Here below is a list of what happened to me;

1. Tried to [redacted] from me.
2. Issued [redacted] (alleged Breach of the lease)
3. [redacted]
4. [redacted]
5. [redacted]
6. Made [redacted] to the local Council licensing department to transfer the license.
7. Refused to implement health and safety.
8. Had a closing order made by the local council.
9. Was in massive breach of the lease.
10. With held documents and [redacted]

Supporting evidence is available.

I am now a wreck of a man and have never fully recovered from Punch Taverns methods of doing business.

PLEASE HELP STOP THIS HAPPENING TO OTHER PEOPLE.

Thank you.

Yours faithfully,

11 May 2013

This email was received from the INTERNET.

Communications via the GSi may be automatically logged, monitored and/or recorded for legal purposes.
