

DIRECTIONS UNDER S.78 (1) and (2) CUSTOMS & EXCISE MANAGEMENT ACT 1979

The Secretary of State and the Director of Border Revenue, in the exercise of their functions in relation to general customs matters and customs revenue matters under sections 1 and 7 respectively of the Borders Citizenship & Immigration Act 2009; and in the exercise of the powers conferred on them by section 78 of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979 and all other powers in that regard, direct as follows -

MAKING DECLARATIONS

If a person entering the United Kingdom has goods to declare, that person shall, unless required do so in any other manner laid down in directions, do so in the following manner.

If so required by any proper officer at any place, orally, to that officer; but, if not so required, as follows at points 1-2 below:

1. If there is a 'Red Channel' or 'Red Point' orally, to any proper officer present at the Red Channel or at the Red Point or, if there is no such officer there present, over the telephone provided at the Red Channel or at the Red Point

2. If there is no 'Red Channel' or 'Red Point'

In accordance with local arrangements agreed between the operators of the relevant facility and the proper officer or, if no such arrangements are in place, by telephone to the number published for such purposes or in writing to the nearest proper office.

PRODUCING BAGGAGE AND OTHER EFFECTS

If so required by the proper officer, a person entering or leaving the United Kingdom shall produce their baggage and anything contained in their baggage or carried with them at the baggage hall or vehicle examination area or at such other place as the officer shall specify.
