Dear, [REDACTED]

Thank you for your e-mail dated 05 August in which you requested the following information:

Could you please provide an electronic copy of the current version of Queen's Regulations for the Royal Navy and the Army? The TSO are unable to deliver these documents as they are out of print and they are unable to source a photocopy,

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA). A search for the information has now been completed within the Ministry of Defence. I can confirm that the department does hold electronic copies in PDF format of the Queen's Regulations (QR) for the Royal Navy and the British Army and they are attached as requested

In regard to the British Army QR's please note the last update was July 2013, the next version is due to be published in April 2015. Any updates within the Army QR's are highlighted in green text.

If you are not satisfied with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, 1st Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, <http://www.ico.gov.uk>. I hope this information is helpful.

Yours sincerely,

Defence Personnel Secretariat
