To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the Association and the Association's members as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

Respective Responsibilities of the Central Staff Committee and the Auditors

As explained more fully in the statement of the Central Staff Committee's responsibilities, the Central Staff Committee is responsible for the preparation of the financial statements which give a true and fair view.

We have been appointed as auditor under Section 33 of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992 and report in accordance with that Act. Our responsibility is to audit and express an opinion on the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland). Those standards require us to comply with the Auditing Practices Board's (APB's) Ethical Standards for Auditors.

Those standards require us to comply with the Auditing Practices Board's (APB's) Ethical Standards for Auditors.

Scope of the Audit of the Financial Statements

An audit involves obtaining evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements sufficient to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or error. This includes an assessment of: whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the Association's circumstances and have been consistently applied and adequately disclosed; the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by the Central Staff Committee; and the overall presentation of the financial statements.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the state of the Association's financial affairs as at 31 December 2013 and of its transactions in the year then ended, and
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice; and
- have been prepared in accordance with the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992 and the Constitution.
