Dear [REDACTED]

It was good to see you again at the very useful meeting on 13 September. It was extremely helpful to have the details of the research work that Syngenta is doing on this issue. I have shared some of the information on your handout with colleagues in Defra and wondered whether you had any slightly more detailed information that I could share within the Department? I think we'd be particularly interested in anything on the planned collaboration with Bayer.

Many thanks and best wishes
