Gibraltar

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

These Regulations implement Title V of Directive 2014/65/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 15 May 2014 on markets in financial instruments and amending Directive 2002/92/EC and Directive 2011/61/EU (recast) (OJ no L173, 12/6/2014, p349) (“MiFID 2”).

Regulation 3 gives effect to Article 93 of MiFID 2 which provides that requirements on Consolidated Tape Providers (CTPs) relating to the reporting of non-equity financial instruments do not commence until 3 September 2018.

Regulation 4 enables the Financial Conduct Authority (“FCA”) to enforce directly applicable requirements imposed on data reporting service providers under Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 15 May 2014 on markets in financial instruments and amending Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 (OJ L173, 12/6/2014, p.84) (“MiFIR”) and directly applicable EU Regulations made under it.

Regulation 5 prohibits the provision of data reporting services by persons who are not authorised under these Regulations, authorised investment firms or credit institutions operating a multilateral trading facility or an organised trading facility or recognised investment exchanges acting in compliance with Title V of MiFID 2, or EEA data reporting service providers authorised in their home state and who are exercising their right to provide such services in the United Kingdom under Article 60 of MiFID 2. Data reporting services are defined in regulation 2.

Regulation 6 requires the FCA to keep a register of data reporting service providers.

Regulations 7 to 11 provide for the making of applications for authorisation to the FCA, the information which must be provided with applications, the determination process by the FCA and when authorisation may be cancelled or varied.

Part 3 of these Regulations provides for the required operating conditions for each of the three types of data reporting services. An Approved Reporting Mechanism (ARM) and an Approved Publication Arrangement (APA) provide services to investment firms to enable them to meet their transaction reporting obligations under MiFIR. They need to be authorised under these Regulations in order to make public that information, which they must do initially on a reasonable commercial basis and after 15 minutes without charge. A CTP is a business which collates all the transaction data which must be made available by trading venues and investment firms (as published by APAs) under MiFIR and makes that available to the public as a continuous data stream. That data stream must be made available to the public on a reasonable commercial basis. A business providing this service must be authorised under these Regulations.

Part 4 of these Regulations confers functions on the FCA to be the data reporting service authorising authority and to be responsible for the monitoring of compliance with and enforcement of these Regulations.

Part 5 of these Regulations imposes reporting and record keeping requirements on data reporting service providers. It also applies restrictions on the FCA in respect of the disclosure of confidential information obtained under these Regulations.

Part 6 of these Regulations applies Part 11 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (c.8) (information gathering and investigations) in respect of the FCA's functions under these Regulations.

Part 7 of these Regulations contains the disciplinary measures the FCA may take in respect of contraventions of the requirements in these Regulations. The FCA may make a public censure, impose financial penalties, restrict the ability of a data reporting service provider to provide services and require restitution to be paid. The FCA may also bring proceedings for injunctions to prevent contraventions, or further contraventions, of these Regulations. Part 7 also contains criminal offences for a breach of the requirement to be authorised under these Regulations and for misleading the FCA.

Part 8 of these Regulations contains obligations for the FCA to issue supervisory, warning and decision notices in the use of its disciplinary powers and requires it to make statements of policy in relation to the use of such powers.

Part 9 of these Regulations provides for decisions made by the FCA under these Regulations to be brought before the Tribunal.

Part 10 of these Regulations provides that data reporting service providers authorised in Gibraltar are to be treated under these Regulations as if they have been authorised in an EEA State other than the United Kingdom.
