

Bags exempt from charges

A bag intended to be used solely to contain wholly or partly unwrapped food for human or animal consumption (for food safety)

A bag intended to be used solely to contain a prescription medicine (for pharmacists to comply with legal requirements and for confidentiality)

A bag intended to be used solely to contain wholly or partly unwrapped loose seeds, bulbs, corms, flowers, rhizomes or goods contaminated by soil (for food safety to avoid contamination)

A bag intended to be used solely to contain uncooked fish or fish products, meat or meat products or poultry or poultry products (for food safety)

A sealed transit bag used for alcohol and tobacco sold in places like airports

A returnable multiple reuse bag sold for more than 10p made from material between 50 and 70 microns thick (these are not single use bags and encourage reuse)

A bag intended to be used solely to contain live aquatic creatures in water (not using a bag is not an option)

A bag intended to be used solely to contain wholly or partly unwrapped axes, knives, knife blades or razor blades (for safety)

NB A bag is exempt if it contains any number of exempted goods, but not if it contains exempted goods with other non-exempted items.