Dear [REDACTED]

Release of Information

Thank you for your correspondence dated 13 May 2015 requesting information on the number of Royal Navy short notice tasks that have been undertaken in response to Russian navy ships approaching British waters in the most recent 12 month period available. Your enquiry has been considered to be a request for information in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

I can confirm that the Department holds the following information within the scope of your request. There have been nine occasions in the last 12 months when a UK Warship has escorted a Russian Federation Naval vessel.

Under Section 16 of the Act (Advice and Assistance) you may find it helpful to note the answer given by The Minister of State for Defence, the Rt Hon Mark Francois MP, to Written Questions 218389, 218391 and 225944 on 24 March 2015 recorded on Hansard which you can access via the following link:

<http://www.parliament.uk/business/publications/written-questions-answers-statements/written-question/Commons/2014-12-11/218389/>

If you are not satisfied with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, 1st Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, <http://www.ico.org.uk>.

Yours sincerely
