Criminal Injuries Compensation (Overseas)(CICO) application form

The CICO Scheme is an evidence based scheme and the decisions are made using the balance of probabilities burden of proof. This means that the Claims Officer needs to be satisfied that it is more likely than not that a violent crime was responsible for the injury, and more likely than not that the claimant was blameless in the incident.

This application will not normally be processed until any disciplinary or other action arising out of the incident has been completed and confirmed.

Part 13: Certificate and remarks by the applicant's Commanding Officer

Is, to the best of your knowledge, the applicant's statement complete and correct? No
Yes

If no, what additions/alterations are required?

If the incident has not been reported to the local police, why not?

Have you any additional information concerning this case of which you think the MoD should be aware, e.g. disciplinary action taken or pending, possible provocation, etc? If you dealt with those concerned summarily, a report of your findings should be provided, together with your reasons for proposing that the offence be regarded as criminal.

Details of any disciplinary record

If the incident involved a fight with local civilians, or took place in a bar or district where trouble is commonplace, is any action proposed to place the premises or area out of bounds? If not, why not?

If you are aware that the applicant had consumed alcohol prior to the incident, please provide a complete pen picture of their general character. In the event of any adverse comments about the applicant, it is essential that your reasons are given in full.
