Dear [REDACTED],

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST ABOUT The SCOTLAND OFFICE'S SIRO

Thank you for your email of 23 January 2012.

You asked for the following information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000:

In 2008 the government established a new position within government to try and deal with the serious problems of departments losing sensitive and confidential information, particularly that stored electronically. Those holding this new office are called Senior Information Risk Owners or Officers (SIRO's) and all departments as well as various other bodies within HM Gov must appoint someone to this post.

Could you please tell me who the SIRO is for your organisation, their position within the organisation and their contact details?

The Senior Information Risk Owner for the Scotland Office is Chris Flatt, Deputy Director Corporate and Constitutional Division. He can be contacted by emailing chris.flatt@scotlandoffice.gsi.gov.uk or writing to the address at the top of the page.

I hope you find this helpful.

If you are dissatisfied with the decision made in relation to your request you may ask for an internal review. A request for an internal review should be addressed to:

FOI Officer
