Notes

Normal time for issuing Official Search Certificates

1 Certificates of official search are normally posted on the day of the receipt of the application therefor if received before 12 noon. Under Rule 8(2) of the Agricultural Credit Rules, 1928, the certificate extends to registrations effected during the day of the date of the certificate, and may be issued only after the office is closed for registrations of that date.

Certified copy of any entry may be obtained.

2 If the Certificate shows that there is an entry in the Register and you would like further information about it, you may obtain a certified copy of the filed memorandum by applying on Form AC5.
