Introduction

This report covers export licensing decisions made by Her Majesty's Government (HMG) between 1st January 2013 and 31st March 2013. Licence applications are submitted to and processed by the Export Control Organisation (ECO), part of the Department for International Trade, through a purpose-built online licensing system called Spire. The ECO issues licences for controlling the export of strategic goods.

Whether or not an export licence is required is determined by four factors, the:

- nature of the goods due to be exported
- destination concerned
- ultimate end use of the goods
- licensability of trade activities of the goods due to be exported

Broadly there are two types of licence, individual and general. Licences can be standard or open.

Each licence names the goods that can be exported and specifies the destinations to which they can be exported, along with other details and restrictions. General licences are pre-published and can be used by all eligible exporters whereas individual licences are issued following a successful application and allow only those named on the application to export certain goods. Those exporting under general licences must adhere to the terms and conditions of the licence under which they wish to export. Exporters must register with the ECO to use a general licence and are subject to regular audits to ensure the licence terms and conditions are being adhered to. Those requiring an individual licence must submit an application to the ECO where they wish to make exports not covered by the terms and conditions of a general licence.

Generally, open licences can be used with fewer restrictions than standard licences. Standard licences tend to name a specific quantity of specific goods that can be exported to a specific destination whereas open licences may include a wider range of goods or destinations and generally do not limit the quantity of goods that can be exported.

A glossary of key terms follows this introduction which explains the various licence types and subtypes that can be used or applied for and how information relating to each licence type and subtype is available within this report.

This report and other sources of information

Each of these quarterly reports (from 2015Q1 published in July 2015) is supplemented by a set of data tables in spreadsheet format (plus CSV format) and a statistical commentary document in addition to this report. The data tables provide the same information as presented in this report but in a different format and for periods back to 1 January 2008. CSV spreadsheets use a non-proprietary format that facilitates the manipulation of the data by a variety of software (not just Microsoft Excel) and provide the same information as available from the data tables. These outputs can be found alongside this report under the 'Quarterly reports' heading here:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/strategic-export-controls-licensing-data>

The 'New Report' tool on the "Strategic Export Controls: Reports and Statistics" web page can also be used to download data. The tool offers a variety of filters that can be applied to allow users to download data of specific interest, such as licences which name a certain destination or licences for the shipment of goods with a certain rating. The tool is available here (registration required):

Key terminology and data available in this report

Licences types exist for each combination of open/standard and general/individual , except for standard general . The following table summarises the licence types under each of these headings. Each of these licence type has subtypes (more information available under 'Licence types and subtypes').

	Open	Standard
General	OGELs	Not applicable
Individual	OIELs, OITCLs,	SIELs, SITCLs

Key terms

Strategic goods include military goods and a wide range 'dual-use' goods; civilian goods with a military purpose. Goods are assessed against a consolidated list of goods that require export authorisation, available here:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/uk-strategic-export-control-lists-the-consolidated-list-of-strategic-military-and-dual-use-items-that-require-export-authorisation>

It is possible for a licence to be for both military and dual-use goods.

Control Entries are the codes assigned to each good on the consolidated list of goods that require export authorisation (herein 'consolidated list'). For example, all control entries beginning 'ML' (such as ML1, ML8 etc) are control entries for military goods. The process of assigning control entries to goods is called Rating.

In some cases goods can be made subject to control if they do not appear on the consolidated list. Goods that the exporter has been told, knows or suspects are, or may be, intended for "WMD Purposes" are given the rating "End-Use". Goods that the exporter has been told, knows or suspects are, or may be, intended for use as components in, or production or test equipment for, military equipment in an embargoed destination; or may be intended for use as parts of military goods illegally obtained from the UK, irrespective of destination, are given the rating "MEND". Both of these "end-use" ratings are also sometimes referred to as "catch all" ratings.

Case summaries are text descriptions used to classify goods on licences. They are standardised descriptions to explain what the goods are without giving away commercially sensitive details about the goods (such as design or intellectual property). Using standardised descriptions also facilitates comparison and analysis. Often extra detail is communicated by using prefixes. For example, a replacement part for a sporting shotgun may be described as "components for sporting shotguns" rather than just "sporting shotgun".

One or more Control Entry can be used to rate more than one good on a licence. Also, one or more Case Summaries can be used to describe a single Control Entry.

Goods are rated as Military (ie, they are assigned a Control Entry from the UK Military List within the consolidated list ) or they are rated as being Non-military. Non-military goods:

- appear on other lists within the consolidated list , such as the UK Dual-Use List .
- also include goods refused to destinations that are placed under sanctions, such as trade sanctions or an arms embargo. Licences relating to the goods affected by the sanction do not get approved but also do not get rated against the consolidated list. They are instead rated with a sanction code, such as 'RUS' for Russia and 'IRN' for Iran.

SIELs for Goods covered by Council Regulation 1236/2005 (see 'Licence types and subtypes') concern trade in certain equipment and products which could be used for capital punishment, torture or other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment. These are classed as non-military goods but appear separately to the statistics on licences for non-military goods. SIELs for Goods covered by Council Regulation 1236/2005 are therefore not included in the count of non-military goods for other SIEL subtypes. More information on the Regulation is available here: <https://www.gov.uk/controls-on-torture-goods>

As noted, goods can also be rated even if they don't appear on the consolidated list.

Licence applications can be Refused (for standard individual licences) or Rejected (for open individual licences). Licences are refused/rejected for one or more pre-specified reasons. All applications for licences are assessed on a case-by-case basis against the Consolidated EU and National Arms Export Licensing Criteria and a decision made on either approval or refusal. Depending on the nature of the goods, other policy aspects might also be considered. For example, if the exported goods are due to be incorporated into another system, equipment or plant, then the items are also assessed against the UK's incorporation factors policy.

Applications for licences can be refused if it is deemed to fail one or more of the Consolidated EU and National Arms Export Licensing Criteria. These 8 criteria include, for example, Preservation of regional peace, security and stability (criterion 4) or Respect for the UK's international obligations and commitments, in particular sanctions adopted by the UN Security Council or the European Union, agreements on non-proliferation and other subjects, as well as other international obligation (criterion 1). More information about the criteria is available here:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/consolidated-eu-and-national-arms-export-licensing-criteria>

Licences can also be Revoked at any time after being Issued.

Case & goods footnotes are added to certain cases to provide explanation on the end use and/or end user.

Country footnotes are added to destinations with the aim to help the user understand why certain goods may have been approved, refused/rejected or revoked in the period.

Licence types and subtypes

Export Licences

General Licences

Before data are presented per destination, a table summarises the use of Open General Export Licences (OGELs) on page 15. OGELs are pre-published licences allowing the export of certain goods to certain destinations. If exporters are eligible to trade under an OGEL then they should register to use that OGEL. Once registered, there is no need for an exporter to submit further applications to trade under the licence they have registered to use.

Some Open General Transshipment licences exist for the transshipment of certain goods through the UK en-route from one country to another, providing in all cases that the relevant conditions are met.

There are no Open General licences for the incorporation of goods into another product or higher level systems.

Individual Licences

The vast majority of this report presents information (where available) per destination relating to standard individual licences and open individual licences (SIELs, OIELs, SITLs, SITCLs and OITCLs). All destinations are presented in this report, and if information regarding certain licence types is not presented for a destination then this is because no decisions have been made on such licences in this period.

Exporters should check to see whether they are eligible to use an open general licence before applying for either a standard individual licence (eg SIEL, SITCL) or open individual licence (eg OIEL, OITCL), whichever is most appropriate.

Open Individual Licences

Open Individual Export Licences (OIELs) are specific to an individual exporter and cover multiple shipments of specified items to specified destinations and/or, in some cases, specified consignees. Licences permitting permanent export are generally valid for up to 5 years from the date of issue. However, OIELs covering the export to EU Member States of goods entered on the Military List and Dealer to Dealer OIELs (an OIEL subtype) are generally valid for 3 years.

Other OIELs:

There are several subtypes of OIELs including Global Project Licences, as well as Dealer-to-dealer, Cryptographic, Media and Continental Shelf OIELs.

Dealer-to-dealer OIELs (or simply Dealer OIELs) authorise UK registered firearms dealers to export certain categories of firearms and ammunition solely to other registered firearms dealers on the European Union only, provided that copies of valid documentation are forwarded to the Home Office at least 2 working days before each shipment.

Cryptographic OIELs authorise the export of specified cryptography hardware or software and the transfer of specified cryptography technology. These licences do not cover hardware, software or technology which includes certain types of cryptanalytic functions.

Media OIELs authorise the export of military helmets, body armour, non-military 4WD civilian vehicles with ballistic protection and specially designed components for any of these items, mainly for the protection of aid agency workers and journalists in areas of conflict. The licence permits these goods to be exported to all destinations on a temporary basis only, i.e. the goods must be returned to the United Kingdom when no longer required.

Continental Shelf OIELs authorise the export of controlled goods to the UK sector of the Continental Shelf for the use only on, or in connection with, offshore installation and associated vessels.

Global Project Licences

Global Project Licences (GPL) are a form of export licence that were introduced by Framework Agreement partners (UK, France, Italy, Sweden, Spain and Germany) to streamline the arrangements for licensing military goods and technologies between them, where these transfers relate to their participation in specific collaborative defence projects. In relation to the collaborative project, each Partner state will, as appropriate, issue their own GPLs to permit transfers of specified goods and technology where these are required for that programme. The GPLs operate on a similar basis to UK Open Individual Export Licences. In the UK, applications for GPLs are assessed against the Consolidated Criteria.

Standard Individual Licences

Standard Individual Export Licences (SIELs) are specific to an individual exporter and generally allow shipments of specified items to a specified consignee up to the quantity specified by the licence.

There are 5 main subtypes; permanent, temporary, incorporation, transshipment and SIELs for Goods covered by Council Regulation 1236/2005.

- Permanent SIELs are for items that are for permanent export to a destination. They are generally valid for 2 years from date of issue.
- Temporary SIELs are for where the export is temporary, for example for the purposes of demonstration, trial or evaluation, and the licence is generally valid for one year only. The goods must be returned before the licence expires. Temporary SIELs can cover more than one destination and in such cases the licence will be counted once per destination. Therefore users should express caution when summing licence details together across countries.
- Incorporation SIELs are for goods that are due to be incorporated ie, installing them into another product or higher level system. For incorporation cases there are two end user types. The 'end user' is the person/organisation incorporating the goods. The 'ultimate end user' is defined as the entity that uses the product or the higher level system into which the exported goods are installed or incorporated.
- Transshipment SIELs are needed for the transshipment of certain goods through the UK en-route from one country to another, providing certain conditions are met. This subtype of SIEL is also called a Standard Individual Transshipment Licence (SITL). Most other transshipments (of certain goods through the UK en-route from one country to another) can be made under one of the Open General Transshipment Licences, provided in all cases that the relevant conditions are met. There are no Open Individual licences for transshipments.
- SIELs for Goods covered by Council Regulation 1236/2005 concern trade in certain equipment and products which could be used for capital punishment, torture or other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment. These are classed as non-military goods but appear separately to the statistics on licences for non-military goods. SIELs for Goods covered by Council Regulation 1236/2005 are therefore not included in the count of non-military goods for other SIEL subtypes.

It should be noted that the refusal of an application for an OIEL, amendment to exclude a particular destination(s) and/or item(s), or the revocation of an OIEL, does not prevent a company from applying for a SIEL covering some or all of the items concerned to specified consignees in the relevant destinations. Clearly, however, the factors that led to the original decision would be taken into account in the decision on any such application.

Other Individual Licences

Information on Other Individual licences is not included as part of this report, or as part of the Excel or CSV spread sheets released alongside this report. Please see separate documentation entitled 'Data for Other Licences' published alongside this, or previous, reports.

Trade Control Licences

Trade Control licences are required for those brokering the export of strategic goods. Brokering means buying or selling, or arranging or negotiating transactions for the purchase, sale, or supply, of goods located in one third country for transfer to another. There are Open and Standard Trade Control licences

An Open Individual Trade Control Licence (OITCL) is specific to a named trader and covers involvement in trading of a generally unlimited supply of specific goods between specific source and destination countries and/or specified consignors, consignees and end-users. OITCLs are generally valid for 5 years.

A Standard Individual Trade Control Licence (SITCL) is specific to a named trader and covers involvement in trading of a set quantity of specific goods between a specific source and destination country with a specified consignor, consignee and end-user. SITCLs will normally be valid for 2 years. Upon expiry either by time or because the activity has taken place, the licence ceases to be valid and must be returned to the Export Control Organisation. Once the licence expires, a new application must be applied for if further trades are required. Like Individual Export licences, exporters should check to see whether they are eligible to use an OITCL before applying for a SITCL.

Reporting

Summary Tables

Before more detailed information is presented by destination on SIELs, OIELs, SITCLs and OITCLs, data summarising the number of licences Issued, Refused/Rejected and Revoked for each licence type within the period are presented.

Following this is some detailed information on Dealer OIELs, Cryptographic OIELs, Media OIELs, Continental Shelf OIELs and Global Project Licences - as generally there are not many of these per quarter so the information is best summarised for all destinations together in one table. Processing statistics are reported, similar to those presented per destination (see below). A table showing registrations, suspensions and de-registrations for the use of OGELs immediately precedes detailed information per destination.

Information Per Destination

Information for each destination follows the same pattern. The minimum information provided for each destination is processing statistics. Where no such licences decisions were made in the period, there is simply no information presented for such cases.

Processing statistics

The time calculated is the initial processing time, ie, the time elapsed from when the application is first received to when it is closed. All closed cases are counted, including those where the licence is issued or refused/rejected, or where the application is stopped or withdrawn, or where there was No Licence Required (NLR) decision made on the licence. Revocations apply to existing licences only, so are not counted. Time spent by the ECO waiting for documents from applicants or any time where the ECO are waiting for the applicant to respond to a request for further information is excluded. Time taken to make any amendments post-decision is not counted. For more information on how processing time is calculated, please consult the Quality and Methodology Report on the Strategic Export Controls licensing statistics web page:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/strategic-export-controls-licensing-data>.

Separately for SIELs, SITCLs, OIELs and OITCLs the following processing statistics are presented per destination:

- Median processing time
- % and number of licences completed in 20 and 60 working days. For SIELs there are government targets to process 70% of applications within 20 working days and 99% within 60 working days. For OIELs and OITCLs there are government targets to process 60% of applications within 60 working days.

Licensing statistics

The information within the report covers those licences Issued, Refused/Rejected or Revoked within the period. It does not include information where applications were not fully processed, eg stopped or withdrawn, information on goods where there was No Licence Required (NLR), or certain changes to an existing licence - such as re-opening an application to make changes such as extensions to licences, removing good/s (although this is not done for OIELs), removing country/countries, or amending applicant errors.

If goods / countries are added to an application and subsequently end up on a licence they will be reported as a new issue for that period. The existing items will not be re-reported. The same applies for items removed from an application on an amendment, except in this case it will be reported as revoked.

In a small number of cases there may be a subsequent change of status during the same period. There are two main reasons for such changes: a licence issued during the period may have been issued then subsequently revoked in the same period, for example because of the imposition of trade sanctions or an arms embargo; or a decision during the period to refuse a licence might be overturned because the applicant later appealed successfully and the licence was issued in a later period. These cases are flagged in this report as Rv and A respectively.

For each destination and for each of Issued, Refused and Revoked the following is data is presented in this report, where available, for each SIEL subtype (note: information on SITLs can be found under the heading 'SIELs - Transshipment'):

- A count of the number of licences on which goods were Issued, Refused or Revoked categorised by the type of goods; Military, Non-military or Both Military and Non-military (see 'Key Terms'). Examples of when a licence may be for both military and non-military goods could be where the goods are military body armour and civilian body armour, or where bomb detection goods are being sold for use by the military and for civilian use such as at airports. However, the military and non-military goods will not necessarily be of the same type.
- A count of the number of licences on which goods were Issued, Refused or Revoked per Control Entry. Control Entries are presented per category (Military, Non-military or Both Military and Non-military) based on the licence they relate to. The number given is the number of licences on which a Control Entry was used. Please note that more than one Control Entry can apply to goods on an individual licence and each Control Entry is counted only once per individual licence (regardless of the number of goods that have been rated with that Control Entry).
- Data for Issued SIELs includes the value of the goods in each category. However, note that goods covered by issued SITLs merely pass through the UK and it would therefore be misleading to compare the 'value' for these licences in the report with the value of items originating in the UK.
- Case summaries for each of Issued, Refused and Revoked broken down by category (Mil/Non-mil/Both), listed below the appropriate Control Entry table in which they feature. Case summaries for small arms covered by SIELs issued in the period give the number of units in parentheses. If the number of licences using the case summary in the period is more than one then this is also detailed in parentheses (eg "2 licences"). Items that were allowed for Temporary export are indicated by a "T" preceding the description. Items that were originally allowed for Temporary export but then converted to allow Permanent export are indicated by a "T(P)". Note that more than one Case Summary can apply to a single Control Entry. Note that more than one Case Summary can apply to a single Control Entry.
- The ultimate destination/s for goods that are being incorporated.
- For refusals, the number of times each of the 8 Consolidated EU and National Arms Export Licensing Criteria are used to refuse licence applications for the destination is provided.

The Control Entries supplied are less detailed than those listed in the consolidated list of goods that require export authorisation. For example, we report ML1 but there are more specific codes such as ML1a, ML1b, ML1c and ML1d. Here is an example to explain how we would count the number of licences containing goods rated ML1:

Issued licences for a given destination	Control Entries applied to goods on licence
Licence 1	ML1a, ML1a, ML1b, ML1c
Licence 2	ML1a, ML2a
Licence 3	ML1a
Licence 4	ML1c
Licence 5	ML2a
Total number of licences containing goods rated ML1	4

In the example the number of licences containing goods rated ML1 is 4 because the more detailed codes (eg ML1a, ML1b etc) are treated as though they are the broader code ML1. Also, each Control Entry is counted a maximum of once per licence, so licence 1, 2, 3 and 4 each have a count of 1 for ML1.

The data on refused SIEL applications does not include those refused during this period following an appeal against an earlier refusal. The SIELs data also does not cover goods that were removed from an application before a licence was issued, applications that were withdrawn or stopped before a decision was reached, or applications where it was determined that no licence was required or that the goods could be exported to the destination concerned under an Open General Export Licence (OGEL).

In the case of SIELs refused or revoked, only the rating of the goods is provided.

Values are shown to the nearest pound. It should be noted that the actual value of exports made under the licences is likely to be less than shown because some of these licences will not be used to make all of the exports authorised and others will not be used at all. In addition, some items are exported only temporarily and are later returned to the UK.

In some cases SIELs may be issued identifying more than one destination. This normally arises where a licence is issued for the temporary export of items for exhibition or demonstration in more than one destination. Details of these licences are included in the information for each relevant destination. This means that the total number of SIELs issued is lower than the sum of all SIELs issued shown across all the destination pages.

For each destination and for each of Issued, Refused and Revoked the following data is presented in this report, where available, for each OIEL subtype:

- A case summary description of the goods covered by each OIEL, with the items that were allowed for temporary export indicated by a "T" preceding the description, for Issued, Rejected and Revoked licences.

Case summaries are provided for all licences issued in the period or where the coverage of an existing licence was amended during the period by the inclusion or reinstatement of this destination or by the addition of goods. Case summaries are provided for licences fully revoked, refused in full or whose coverage was amended during the period by the removal of items and/or destinations. The destination coverage of an OIEL may be amended for a variety of reasons, but mainly in the light of recommendations received from advisory government departments. Sometimes amendments follow the imposition of an arms embargo, but they may also reflect general concerns about the destination or a relevant change in circumstances there. A decision to exclude a particular country from the coverage of an OIEL does not mean that country is permanently excluded. Where the concerns that led to the original decision are no longer relevant, it might be decided to reinstate that destination.

The OIELs data does not cover applications from which specific goods or destinations were removed before an OIEL was issued, or applications withdrawn before a decision was reached, it was determined that no licence was required or that the items could be exported to the destination concerned under an OGEL.

The information does not cover OIELs whose period of validity was extended temporarily during the period pending a decision on an application for a new OIEL. Such cases amount to a temporary extension of an OIEL granted in an earlier period. The decision on the new application will be covered in this or a future report, depending on the timing of the decision. As OIELs cover multiple shipments of specified goods to specified destinations or specified consignees, exporters holding OIELs are not asked to provide details of the value of goods they propose to ship under an OIEL and it is therefore not possible to provide information on the total value of OIELs issued.

As well as the data presented on SIELs and OIELS, data is presented on SITCLs and OITCLs:

- The number of SITCLs or OITCLs (presented separately) Issued, Refused (for SITCLs)/Rejected (for OITCLs) and Revoked in the period

SIEL and OIEL sub-types are mutually exclusive. SIEL Transhipments and Incorporations are permanent, but counted separately to Standard Permanent and Standard Temporary licences. Counts of licence applications Issued, Refused/Rejected and Revoked count the decisions made during the period on the licence, whenever the case has been closed or re-opened then re-closed.

The SIELs issued were granted for goods with the following 'Control Entries' (for permanent export except where the case summary description is preceded by a T, which indicates a Temporary Export). Please note that more than one 'Control Entry' can apply to goods on an individual licence and each 'Control Entry' is counted only once per individual licence (regardless of the number of goods that have been rated with that 'Control Entry'):

Total	1	£451,637

The SIELs issued were granted for goods with the following 'Control Entries' (for permanent export except where the case summary description is preceded by a T, which indicates a Temporary Export). Please note that more than one 'Control Entry' can apply to goods on an individual licence and each 'Control Entry' is counted only once per individual licence (regardless of the number of goods that have been rated with that 'Control Entry'). As the items covered by issued SITLs merely pass through the UK, it would be misleading to compare the 'value' for these licences with the value of items originating in the UK.:

Country Footnotes

1. The UK interprets the OSCE arms embargo for Armenia as prohibiting the export of any military goods or technology to any person, or to any destination, in Armenia. It has been UK practice occasionally to make an exemption in its interpretation of the embargo by approving exports of non-lethal military goods to humanitarian, media or peacekeeping organisations, where it is clear that the embargo was not intended to prevent those exports and there is a strong humanitarian case for them.

Country Footnotes

1. The UK interprets the OSCE arms embargo for Azerbaijan as prohibiting the export of any military goods or technology to any person, or to any destination, in Azerbaijan. It has been UK practice occasionally to make an exemption in its interpretation of the embargo by approving exports of non-lethal military goods to humanitarian, media or peacekeeping organisations, where it is clear that the embargo was not intended to prevent those exports and there is a strong humanitarian case for them.

Country Footnotes

1. UN Security Council Resolution 1907 of 23 December 2009 established an arms embargo on Eritrea. UNSCR 2060 (2012) introduced exemptions to the arms embargo for temporary export of protective clothing to Eritrea by United Nations personnel, representatives of the media and humanitarian and development workers and associated personnel for their personal use only; and for the export of non-lethal military equipment intended solely for humanitarian or protective use, as approved in advance by the relevant Sanctions Committee.

Following the adoption of the UN arms embargo, the EU adopted Council Decision 2010/127/CFSP on 1 March 2010 and Council Regulation (EU) No 667/2010. These measures were subsequently amended in 2010 by Council Decision 2010/414/CFSP.

All exports for this destination were approved in accordance with the sanctions in place.

Country Footnotes

- UNSCR 1929 was adopted on 9 June 2010, imposing a fourth round of sanctions against Iran.

The European Union adopted Council Regulation (EU) No 267/2012 on 26 March that revoked and replaced previous EU sanctions measures. Sanctions against Iran now include wide restrictions on trade including the export of 'dual use' goods and goods that could contribute to Iran's nuclear programme as well as an arms embargo. There are also wide restrictions targeting the investment in Iran's energy including the supply of key equipment and the purchase of oil and gas. Furthermore there are wide prohibitions on dealings with large sections of the financial sectors including the freezing of funds and economic resources of certain individuals and entities, as well as restrictions on the provision of insurance to the Government of Iran and restrictions on the transfer of funds with Iranian banks.

All exports for this destination were approved in accordance with the sanctions in place.

- On 12 April 2011, the EU adopted additional sanctions on Iran in response to the deterioration of the human rights situation. Council Decision 2011/235/CFSP, as amended, includes restrictions on the supply of equipment which might be used for internal repression, as well as of monitoring and interception equipment.

All exports for this destination were approved in accordance with the sanctions in place.

- The adoption of UNSCR 1929 on 9 June 2010 established a UN embargo on the supply of conventional weapons to Iran, in addition to restrictions introduced under the original UNSCR 1737 of 23 December 2006, which restricted any equipment that could contribute to the nuclear capability of Iran. The consolidated Regulation 267/2012 includes amendments to UNSCR 2010/413/CFSP that embargo equipment for the petrochemical industry, trade in precious and raw metals, diamonds, Iranian banknotes and coinage to the Central Bank of Iran, naval equipment and technology for ship-building, and on certain software for integrating industrial processes. There is currently one exemption to the arms embargo, for the export of non-combat vehicles with ballistic protection intended solely for protective use of EU and Member States personnel.

EU counter-proliferation sanctions currently in force are set out in Council Decision 2010/413/CFSP, as amended. This Decision embargoes the supply of arms and equipment that could contribute to the nuclear capability of Iran, nearly all Dual-Use equipment and equipment for certain sectors of the oil and natural gas industries.

All exports for this destination were approved in accordance with the sanctions in place.

Case & goods Footnotes

1. These licences are for export of commercially available electronic equipment. They were originally refused because of concerns of possible diversion to military end-use. The refusals were reported in the Quarterly Report for October-December 2012 and the Annual Report for 2012. On appeal, the diversion risk was found to be unsubstantiated and the licences were granted. For the sake of consistency the same goods description has been used here as when reporting the refusals.

Country Footnotes

1. UN Security Council Resolution 1970 of 26 February 2011 established an embargo on the supply of arms and related material to Libya. The embargo was amended by Resolutions 2009 (2011) and 2095 (2013). Exemptions exist, with approval from the UN Sanctions Committee, for supplies of non-lethal military equipment and protective clothing for use by United Nations personnel, representatives of the media and humanitarian and development workers. Arms and related material intended solely for security or disarmament assistance to the Libyan government are also subject to exemption criteria.

EU Council Decision 2011/137/CFSP, as amended, restricts the provision of arms and related material; as well as of equipment that might be used for internal repression. Exemptions are in place for internal repression equipment intended solely for humanitarian or protective use, and for temporary export of protective clothing for use by United Nations and EU personnel, representatives of the media and humanitarian and development workers.

All exports for this destination must be in accordance with the sanctions in place.

Country Footnotes

- UN Security Council Resolution 2093 (2013) continues the embargo on the supply of arms and related material. However, the embargo no longer applies to military equipment intended solely for the development of the Security Forces of the Federal Government of Somalia, providing the UN Sanctions Committee is notified in advance.

Exemptions to the embargo authorise supplies of non-lethal military equipment intended solely for humanitarian or protective use, weapons and military equipment for the support or use by UN personnel or strategic partners of AMISOM, supplies for use by UN member states to combat piracy and supplies intended for the development of Somali security sector institutions.

The EU first enforced UN sanctions in December 2002 via Council Decision 147/2003. The scope of the EU regulations has subsequently been amended as a result of the modifications to the UN sanctions.

All exports for this destination were approved in accordance with the sanctions in place.
