

Key to the MDR One Page Assessment Summaries

The MDR Assessment framework

The MDR Assessment Framework is made up of 16 separate Assessment Questions, which are grouped into 6 different areas, known as Components. The first three components together make up the 'Match with UK Priorities Index'. Components four to six collectively make up the 'Organisational Strengths Index'. The different parts of the MDR assessment framework are shown below.

Multilateral agencies were awarded a score between 0.5 and 4 for each of the 16 assessment questions, with scores taking half point values beginning at 0.5 and going up to 4 (i.e. 0.5, 1, 1.5, 2, 2.5, 3, 3.5, 4). Questions were assessed and scored using the labels shown below, chosen to suggest progression of performance.

Assessment Question Scores and Descriptors

Descriptor	Score
Strong	4
Satisfactory +	3.5
Satisfactory	3
Weak +	2.5
Weak	2
Unsatisfactory +	1.5
Unsatisfactory	1 or less

Assessment question scores were averaged together to produce scores for each agency for each of the six components; for its match with UK priorities; and for its organisational strengths. The formula used for calculating these component and index scores is shown within the MDR Assessment Framework diagram below. Unlike the assessment question scores, component and index scores were categorised using a four colour traffic light categorisation. The table below shows the thresholds chosen for each traffic light rating, along with the descriptor used.

Component and Index Scores and Descriptors

Descriptor	Traffic Light	Score
Very Good		3.01 to 4
Good		2.51 to 3.0
Adequate		2.01 to 2.5
Weak		0 to 2.0

DFID Funding Chart

The funding chart included on each summary assessment page shows DFID's latest published multilateral core and bilateral through multilateral Official Development Assistance (ODA) to the organisation, as included in our National Statistics release, 'Statistics on International Development'. This data is based on payments made in each calendar year.

UK Burden Share

This is the UK's latest burden share, and represents our core funding to the agency as a proportion of all of the core funding it received. Depending on the frequency with which we provide funding to the agency, the burden share could relate to a specific year, a biennium or to a particular replenishment. This has been made clear in the text.

World Food Programme (WFP)

Assessment Summary: WFP is the food assistance arm of the United Nations (UN). It is capable of delivering emergency food assistance on a large scale, reaching those most in need in difficult and often dangerous environments. WFP also leads the UN's logistics and emergency telecommunications in humanitarian crises.

WFP is well organised, with robust systems, good organisation of human resources and reliable risk management and fraud detection procedures. WFP has been improving its performance management system in recent years.

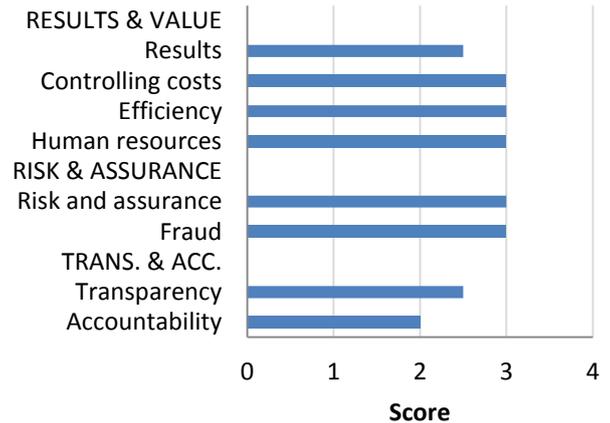

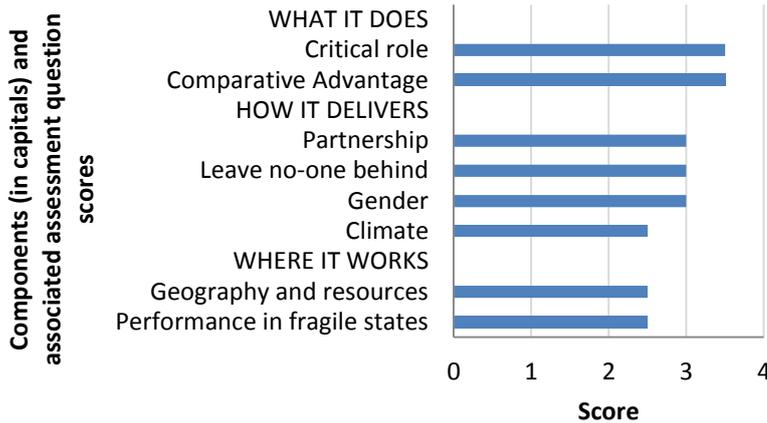

WFP at times faces challenges in using the most appropriate interventions (i.e. often cash transfers can be more effective than giving vouchers or distributing food), and in ensuring better outcomes for girls and women systematically. It can prioritise its programming further to obtain value for money, and improve the way it targets and is accountable to the people it helps.

DFID Funding

UK Engagement: WFP has a well-defined governance and oversight structure. The Executive Director heads the Secretariat and is accountable to the Executive Board which has 36 members. DFID is an active member of the Executive Board and participates in providing policy direction, supervision, effective oversight and approval of programmes. Total UK funding in 2015 was £327 million. Of this, £40 million was core funding and £287 million for specific country programmes. UK burden share of core funding was 15%.
