Dear [REDACTED]

Request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the “FOI Act”)

I refer to your email of 9 November 2016 in which you requested information under the FOI Act from Monitor and NHS Improvement. Since 1 April 2016, Monitor and the NHS Trust Development Authority have been operating as an integrated organisation known as NHS Improvement. For the purposes of this decision, NHS Improvement means Monitor and the TDA.

Your request

You made the following request:

- Monitor’s quarterly logs of gifts and hospitality from July 2014 to March 2016*
- NHS Improvement’s quarterly logs of gifts and hospitality from April 2016 to today.*

It was the case the Monitor routinely published quarterly logs of gifts and hospitality. I can find logs to June 2014 archived on the

gov.uk website: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/monitor-gifts-and-hospitality-log-july-to-september-2013>

However, I can’t find anything beyond this, or for NHS Improvement. Please could you point me to them, or if not yet published, send them to me.”

Decision

NHS Improvement holds the information that you have requested.

NHS Improvement has decided to release all of the information that it holds.

Please see attached to this letter, the Gifts and Hospitality Log for Monitor from July 2014-March 2016. NHS Improvement will be publishing the attached logs on its website soon. We have also attached the Gifts and Hospitality logs from NHS Improvement from April 2016 to present.

Review rights

If you consider that your request for information has not been properly handled or if you are otherwise dissatisfied with the outcome of your request, you can try to resolve this informally with the person who dealt with your request. If you remain dissatisfied, you may seek an internal review within NHS Improvement of the issue or the decision. A senior member of NHS Improvement's staff, who has not previously been involved with your request, will undertake that review.

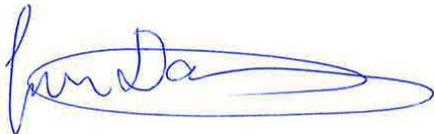

If you are dissatisfied with the outcome of any internal review, you may complain to the Information Commissioner for a decision on whether your request for information has been dealt with in accordance with the FOI Act.

A request for an internal review should be submitted in writing to FOI Request Reviews, NHS Improvement, Wellington House, 133-155 Waterloo Road, London SE1 8UG or by email to nhsi.foi@nhs.net.

Publication

Please note that this letter and attachments will shortly be published on our website. This is because information disclosed in accordance with the FOI Act is disclosed to the public at large. We will, of course, remove your personal information (e.g. your name and contact details) from the version of the letter published on our website to protect your personal information from general disclosure.

Yours sincerely,

Jessica Dahlstrom
Head of Governance
