WORK OF THE DEPARTMENT

The Government Legal Department (GLD) is the largest provider of legal services across Government, working with all the main Whitehall Departments. From roads to rivers, and health to human rights, our work touches on most aspects of public life.

The department has more than 14 client-facing advisory teams who provide legal advice on the development, design and implementation of government policies and decisions, draft secondary legislation and work with Parliamentary Counsel on primary legislation. Our cross-cutting expert service groups for Litigation, Employment and Commercial Law provide specialist legal services to a wide range of Government Departments and public bodies.

We are a non-ministerial government department with more than 1,800 employees, around 1,300 of who are solicitors or barristers. The department is based primarily in London but has teams in Bristol and Leeds.

As an organisation our vision is to be trusted by government to provide consistently excellent and value for money services so Government Departments want to come to us to meet their legal needs, to be known throughout the legal profession for the quality of our legal work, and to be the best employer for our people.

The Divisions

The Department for International Trade Legal Advisers is a Division of the Government Legal Department. The Division advises the Department for International Trade's Trade Policy Group (TPG). TPG has been set up to provide the capability to deliver an independent trade policy for the UK as we leave the European Union. TPG is developing with the rest of Government the UK's specific goals and policies for international trade agreements, and building its own capability as a world leading trade policy organisation to deliver them. DIT Legal Advisers provides legal support to TPG across the range of its work, including establishing the UK's independent membership of the WTO, developing a new independent trade remedies regime for the UK, leading on developing the UK's detailed trade policy positions, building the capability to bring and defend trade disputes and developing a new trade strategy through free trade agreements. It also advises on export control matters, which are frequently high profile and fast moving, and supports teams leading on market access, services, investment, goods, IP, procurement, regulatory environment and sustainable development. The Division is advising on the legislation required to put in place the powers needed for the UK to establish an independent trade policy, and co-ordinating DIT's input into the Great Repeal Bill.

The Government Legal Department also has openings for Trade Lawyers with the Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs Legal Advisers (DLA). Agriculture, and the trade in food and agricultural products, forms one of the most contentious areas of international trade policy. Defra leads on those areas and the work of DLA includes advising on the setting of tariffs and tariff rate quotas, the application of the Sanitary and Phytosanitary (SPS) and Agriculture Agreements under the WTO, the negotiation of elements of future Free Trade Agreements and the handling of relevant trade disputes.

VACANCY DESCRIPTION

A number of immediate opportunities with the Department for International Trade Legal Advisers have arisen at Grade 7 level, across the range of its work, as have a couple within the International, EU Exit and Trade team within Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs Legal Advisers. It is anticipated that some lawyers will form part of international trade negotiation teams, which will involve travel abroad in due course.

Where an applicant holds an overseas degree qualification this should be equivalent to a 2.1 degree. However, this Department will consider applicants who do not have a 2.1 degree but only where satisfactory evidence of equivalent high level academic and/or professional achievement can be provided (e.g. via relevant experience and results achieved for the Graduate Diploma in Law (GDL)/CPE, Legal Practice Course (LPC), Bar Professional Training Course (BPTC)).

Applicants must be (or about to become) qualified to practise as a Solicitor, Barrister or Chartered Legal Executive in England and Wales. Applicants qualified in a jurisdiction outside England and Wales will be required to undertake the Qualified Lawyers Transfer Scheme within 18 months of appointment to a permanent post. GLD will not meet the cost. Successful applicants will not be required to undertake the Qualified Lawyers Transfer Scheme if they choose to be appointed on a fixed term basis.

Successful candidates who choose to be appointed on a fixed term basis may have the option to become permanent at the end of the fixed term appointment. Please let us know your preference in the application form, bearing in mind the current requirement for overseas lawyers to undertake the Qualified Lawyer Transfer Scheme within 18 months of permanent appointment.

Nationality

The GLS is part of the wider Civil Service and therefore the Civil Service nationality rules apply. If a post is described as 'reserved', then only UK nationals will be eligible to be able to apply. If a post is advertised as a 'non-reserved' post, as our posts generally are, those listed below will be eligible to apply:

- UK Nationals (and British Protected Persons);
- Commonwealth citizens and nationals of the European Economic Area (EEA);
- Individuals with dual nationality where one part is British; and
- Certain family members of EEA, Swiss and Turkish nationals (as set out in the Civil Service nationality rules).

It is the applicant's responsibility to check whether this policy applies to them. When applying, applicants will be asked about their nationality at birth, whether they are subject to immigration control, whether there are any restrictions on your continued residence or employment in the UK etc. Detailed document checks will be made prior to employment.

Applications will be accepted from those applicants who may require sponsorship for a work permit under the UK Border Agency's points-based immigration policy. Applications which require sponsorship will, however, only be considered if no suitable settled worker is identified for the position.

The Equality Act 2010 defines a disabled person as someone who has a physical or mental impairment which has a substantial and adverse long-term effect on his or her ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities.

To meet the minimum criteria, candidates applying under the terms of the Guaranteed Interview Scheme (GIS) must:

- Meet all aspects of the stated minimum eligibility criteria (i.e. academic, nationality, and professional criteria);
- Meet the standard set for the Critical Reasoning Test (where used); and Candidates applying under the terms of the GIS, who meet the minimum criteria outlined above, will be invited to attend an interview.

PRE-EMPLOYMENT CHECKS

All government departments are required to ensure that any personnel employed by them comply with the Baseline Personnel Security Standard (BPSS) before they take up employment.

This standard involves verification of identity; nationality and immigration status (including an entitlement to undertake the work in question); employment history (past 3 years) and criminal record (unspent convictions).

You will be asked to produce original documents when attending interview to enable us to verify the above if you are successful. The information which you provide will be treated in the strictest confidence by the GLS and its authorised representative (TMP Worldwide).

Supplying false information or failing to disclose relevant information could be grounds for rejection of your application, or, dismissal and could amount to a criminal offence.

Regarding criminal record checks, a basic disclosure will normally be required (covering convictions considered unspent under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974). This will apply to successful candidates only and your permission will be required before checks are undertaken.

Successful candidates will also be required to be cleared to SC (security check) level.

Some posts will require clearance to a level higher than SC in view of the sensitive nature of the work. You will be told if this applies to you. Details of HM Government vetting policy can be found here: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/hmg-personnel-security-controls>

DATA PROTECTION

The information which you provide will be protected and processed for the purpose of successful completion of the Baseline Personnel Security Standard, in accordance with the requirements of the Data Protection Act (1998).

If you have any concerns about any of the questions which you are asked to complete or what we will do with the information you provide, you should discuss these with the GLS Recruitment Team.
