Dear [REDACTED],

REQUEST FOR INFORMATION: INFORMATION ON TRAVELLING CIRCUSES

Thank you for your request, which we received on 7 February 2017, about information received between 1 December 2016 and 31 January 2017 regarding travelling circuses. As you know, we have handled your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

I enclose a copy of the following information (see 'RFI 8819 – December to January paperwork_Redacted.pdf') held by this Department:

- An email of 31 January 2017 from Peter Jolly's Circus about the Zebra 'Zumba'.

Certain information in the above documents has been redacted under section 38(1) (Health and safety) and section 40(2) (Personal information) of the FOIA.

Section 38(1) applies to information that if disclosed would or would be likely to endanger the physical or mental health, or the safety, of any individual. In applying this exemption we have had to balance the public interest in withholding the information against the public interest in disclosure.

We recognise that there is a public interest in disclosure of information concerning regarding individuals involved in circuses and that some people may wish to see these documents in their entirety. On the other hand, there is a strong public interest in withholding the information because we have seen evidence that individuals associated with the circus licensing regime, or individuals in other areas involving wild animals in circuses, have previously been subject to threats, and the release of further identifying information could increase risk to those individuals. Therefore this information has been withheld and redacted.

The documents contain personal data, which we have concluded should be withheld under section 40(2) (personal data relating to persons other than the requester; i.e. third parties) and section 40(3)(a)(i) of the FOIA. Section 40(2) and section 40(3)(a)(i) of the FOIA provide that personal data relating to third parties is exempt information if its disclosure would breach any of the data protection principles in the Data Protection Act 1998 (DPA). We consider that disclosure of these personal data is likely to breach the first data protection principle in Schedule 1 to the DPA, which relates to the fair and lawful processing of personal data. Disclosure of this information would not constitute 'fair' processing of the personal data because the information relates to persons who are not in a public facing role and would not reasonably have expected their name to be made public. Therefore, we have concluded that this information is exempt from disclosure under section 40(2) of the FOIA.

The information which is exempt from disclosure includes:

- Names and contact details of circus representatives or associates, other than the licence holder, where these details are not already publically known.

Information is reasonably accessible

An application for a renewed licence from Circus Mondao received by APHA/Defra on 6 January 2017, and subsequent correspondence between APHA and the Circus (including letters and emails from APHA of 11, 20 and 24 January, a copy of a veterinary report sent by the Circus on 13 January and an email from the Circus of 23 January) are already available from:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/travelling-circuses-with-wild-animals>

The documents have been published in response to other FOIA requests. As this information is reasonably accessible to you by other means, it is exempt from disclosure under section 21 of the FOIA. This part of your request has therefore been refused.

Information not held

I can confirm that we do not hold any applications for a licence under the Welfare of Wild Animals in Travelling Circuses (England) Regulations 2012, or any associated inspection reports or paperwork for Thomas Chipperfield's Big Cat Circus 'An Evening with Lions and Tigers' or any other travelling circus with wild animals for the period 1 December 2016 to 31 January 2017.

Information disclosed in response to this FOI request is releasable to the public. In keeping with the spirit and effect of the FOIA and the government's Transparency Agenda, this letter and the information disclosed to you may be placed on GOV.UK, together with any related information that will provide a key to its wider context. No information identifying you will be placed on the GOV.UK website.

We attach Annex A, which explains the copyright that applies to the information being released to you.

We also attach Annex B giving contact details should you be unhappy with the service you have received.

If you have any queries about this letter please contact me.

Yours sincerely,

Complaints

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request you may make a complaint or appeal against our decision under section 17(7) of the FOIA or under regulation 18 of the EIRs, as applicable, within 40 working days of the date of this letter. Please write to [REDACTED], Head of Information Rights, Area 4C, Nobel House, 17 Smith Square, London, SW1P 3JR (email: InformationRequests@defra.gsi.gov.uk) and he will arrange for an internal review of your case. Details of Defra's complaints procedure are on our website.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, section 50 of the FOIA and regulation 18 of the EIRs gives you the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Please note that generally the Information Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have first exhausted Defra's own complaints procedure. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
