List of translators and interpreters in China

Prepared by British Embassy and Consulates General in China

www.gov.uk

The following list of translators and interpreters has been prepared by the British Embassy and Consulates-General in China for the convenience of British Nationals who may require these services and assistance. It is provided on the understanding that we (the British Embassy and Consulates-General) do not assume or undertake any legal responsibility, to you, or those affected, if you choose to take it into account when instructing a local translator or interpreter.

Further and alternatively, we cannot accept any liability to any person or company for any financial loss or damage arising from the use of this information or from any failure to give information

Our aim is to provide British nationals with relevant information to enable them to make better informed decisions, but our lists are not recommendations and should not be treated as such.

While every care has been taken in the preparation of this list, neither Her Majesty's Government nor any officer of the British Embassy can act as a guarantor of the competence or probity of any particular provider of translation or interpretation, nor take any responsibility in regard to the consequences of engaging their services.
