

Application for a drought permit

This application is made under section 79A Water Resources Act 1991 as amended by the Environment Act 1995.

Please read through this form and the drought permit guidelines before you fill the form in. Please write clearly in the answer spaces.

You should check joint guidelines from Defra, the Welsh Assembly Government and the Environment Agency on applications for drought permits before preparing the documents we ask you for and sending in your application. The guidance explains which documents we need with your application.

3 The Data Protection Act 1998

We, the Environment Agency, will process the information you provide so that we can:

- deal with your application;
- make sure you keep to the conditions of the licence, permit or registration; and
- process renewals.

We may also process or release the information to:

- offer you documents or services relating to environmental matters;
- consult the public, public organisations and other organisations (for example, the Health and Safety Executive, local councils, the emergency services, the Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs) on environmental issues;
- carry out research and development work on environmental issues;
- prevent anyone from breaking environmental law, investigate cases where environmental law may have been broken, and take any action that is needed;
- assess whether customers are satisfied with our service, and to improve our service; and
- respond to requests for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and the Environmental Information Regulations 2004 (if the Data Protection Act allows).

We may pass the information on to our agents or representatives to do these things for us.

4 Freedom of information

Please note that the information you supply to us is potentially disclosable under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and/or Environmental Information Regulations 2004.

5 Declaration

If you make a statement that is false or misleading, you may be committing an offence under Section 206 Water Resources Act 1991.

I declare that as far as I know and believe, the information in this application is true. I understand that this application may be refused, or approval withdrawn, if I give false or incomplete information.

Tick this box to confirm that you understand and agree with the declaration above.
