Statistical News Release: Firearm and Shotgun Certificates in England and Wales, financial year ending 31 March 2017

The Home Office published today the latest National Statistics on firearm and shotgun certificates in England and Wales.

The statistics cover certificates on issue as at 31 March 2017, as well as historical trend data and police force comparisons. The statistical release provides information on the number of certificates granted and refused for new and renewal applications, certificates revoked, registered firearm dealers, visitors' permits, European firearm passes (EFP) and Article 7 Authorities issued. It also includes experimental statistics on the number of people who hold a firearm certificate and/or shotgun certificate, broken down by age and gender, and breakdowns of firearm and shotgun types.

Data extracted from the National Firearms Licensing Management System (NFLMS) on firearm and shotgun certificates issued by police forces in England and Wales show that:
