

Process for applying to register a trade mark

This is an indication of the process only.

All timings are approximate and will vary according to each individual mark. Should your application be opposed, we will contact you. We aim to provide a quick resolution to opposition disputes to minimise any disruption.