FEES WITH EFFECT FROM 6 APRIL 2017 FOR CITIZENSHIP APPLICATIONS AND THE RIGHT OF ABODE

Including reconsiderations, status checks, duplicate certificates, confirmation of the non-acquisition of British citizenship and certificate corrections

Fees must be paid in full at the same time as you send your application(s) to the Home Office. If the full fee or biometric data is not provided, then the application will be rejected as invalid. The application will not be considered and the fee will be refunded less an administration fee of £25.

The only exception to this applies to requests for a certificate correction. The fee for a certificate correction will be requested once the caseworker has decided what correction is appropriate. Please ensure that you have sufficient funds to cover the fee payment. Certificates of citizenship cannot be issued until fees have been received.

You may pay by cheque or credit/debit card. Please send your payment with the payment slip attached to this leaflet. You are advised not to send cash, transcash or postal orders.

Fees are prescribed in law and only part may be refundable if applications are unsuccessful or withdrawn, except for declarations of renunciation (see table overleaf). You should read very carefully the guides that accompany application forms, to ensure that you meet the statutory requirements, before applying. If you are paying using a bank or credit account which belongs to someone else, you should give their details on the payment slip in case any refund becomes due.

The fees shown overleaf are for applications submitted to the Secretary of State at the Home Office. Applications submitted to a different receiving authority must be sent, or handed in to that authority. The appropriate receiving authorities are:

- i. the Home Secretary if, on the date of receipt, the applicant is in Great Britain or Northern Ireland;
- ii. the Lieutenant-Governor if, on the date of receipt, the applicant is in any of the Islands (i.e. the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man);
- iii. the appropriate Governor if, on the date of receipt, the applicant is in a British overseas territory;
- iv. the Home Secretary if, on the date of receipt, the applicant is elsewhere (including in a Commonwealth country).

Applications for registration or naturalisation as a British overseas territories citizen normally have to be referred to the Governor of the British overseas territory with which the applicant is connected, for his decision. Where this is necessary, applicants will be notified about the fee payable after they have sent in their applications.

The overall fee for British citizenship comprises two elements. They are:

- a) Fee for handling and processing the application. None of this is refundable if the application is refused or withdrawn.
- b) Citizenship ceremony fee. This is paid by applicants who are required to attend a citizenship ceremony. It is refunded to applicants whose applications are refused or withdrawn.

The total amount, including the ceremony, fee is shown in the chart overleaf. Payments should be made using the payment slip attached to this leaflet.

This leaflet has no legal authority as an interpretation of the British Nationality Act 1981 or the current Fees Regulations. It is intended merely as a guide.
