Declaration

We wish to apply for rights to import frozen beef for processing under the arrangements referred to in Commission Regulation (EC) No. 412/2008.

We declare that we are registered with the RPA under the above trader registration number.

We declare that we have not submitted, and undertake not to submit, an application for import rights under System A/System B in any other Member State.

We declare that we have not submitted more than one application for import rights under either one or both of System A and System B in respect of the same natural or legal person.

We declare that we are established in the UK and entered in a national VAT register, details of which are given above and have attached documentary proof.

We declare that we have been active in production of processed products containing beef during the previous 12 months and for the 12 months prior to that and have attached documentary proof.

We declare that it is our intention to import frozen beef from our allocation of import rights and to manufacture it into processed products containing beef which fall within the definition of System A or B products, within a processing establishment approved by RPA.

We declare that the processing premises named in this application for import rights is approved under Article 4 of Regulation (EC) No 853/2004 and that the EEC approval number is specified above.

We declare that the cost of representative samples will be paid to RPA within 28 days of following the date of the invoice.

We declare that to the best of our knowledge and belief the information contained in this application for import rights is correct.
