He owns and lives at Hutton-in-the-Forest, his family's historic house in Cumbria.

Background

1. The Reviewing Committee on the Export of Works of Art & Objects of Cultural Interest (RCEWA) is a non-statutory, independent advisory body made up of experts in the arts including the fields of paintings, decorative arts, manuscripts and archaeology. The Committee's main role is to advise the Secretary of State whether a cultural object which is the subject of an export licence is of national importance under the 'Waverley criteria'.
2. RCEWA members give their services on an honorary basis. However, reasonable expenses incurred by RCEWA members carrying out their duties can be claimed.
3. This reappointment has been made in accordance with the OCPA Code of Practice. Appointments and reappointments are made on merit and political activity plays no part in the selection process. Lord Inglewood is a Conservative Peer.
