

Annex D - LIST OF ORGANISATIONS CONSULTED

The following organisations are being consulted on streamlining the Planning Process for Nationally Significant Wastewater Transfer and Storage Infrastructure Projects:

AONB Conservation Boards
Association of Chief Police Officers
British Waterways
Broads Authority
Chartered Institute of Environmental Health
Chief Fire Officers Association
Commission for Sustainable Development
Committee on Climate Change
Communities and Local Government
Consumer Council for Water
Crown Estate Commissioners;
English Heritage;
Environment Agency;
Environment, Food and Rural Affairs (House of Commons) Committee;
Equality and Human Rights Commission;
Greater London Authority/Mayor of London;
Health and Safety Executive;
Health Protection Agency;
Internal drainage boards;
Joint Committee of the National Amenity Societies;
Joint Nature Conservation Commission;
Local Community groups in London (established in response to the proposed Thames Tunnel project);
Local Government Association;
Local Planning Authorities in England;
Local resilience forums;

Maritime and Coastguard Agency;
MPs in London (affected by the proposed Thames Tunnel project);
National Association of Local Councils;
National Consumer Council;
Natural England;
Ofwat (the Water Services Regulation Authority);
Olympic Delivery Authority
Port of London Authority
Regional development agencies;
Regional planning bodies;
Scottish Government;
Strategic Health Authorities;
Thames Water Utilities Limited;
The relevant Northern Ireland Department;
Town and Country Planning Association
Transport for London
Trinity House
Waste Authorities
Water and Sewerage Companies
Water UK
Welsh Government