RA 1350 has been amended to address the requirements of Air Launched Weapons (ALW) both in UK MOD In-Service use and those under development or trials. The amendment identifies the requirements of development and trial ALWs that are both destined for and those not destined for UK MOD In-Service use (eg: Foreign sales, in MOD benefit, etc). The amendment also addresses incoherence and attains standardization across the whole MAA Regulatory Publications (MRP) set, the amendment incorporates outstanding Requests For Change and updates: references, terms, permissive verbs, abbreviations, email addresses, and obsolete phrases.
